MARIJA RATKOVIC

koordinatorica 13. Revije hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva mladeži
i 1. Four River Film Festivala

Sve je počelo (ili bolje rečeno nastavilo se, ako u obzir uzmem prošlogodišnju 12. Reviju) ovim mailom... U međuvremenu izredala su se tu ukupno 1564 maila (prema statističkim podacima mog Gmail accounta) što u primljenoj, što u odlaznoj pošti. Minute razgovora u pokretnim i nepokretnim mrežama bolje da ne brojim (kao i što ljubazne, što prijeteće SMS poruke) jednako tako bolje je da izostavim iznose vlastitog telefonskog računa. Uglavnom, kad se osvrnem na posljednjih 11 mjeseci puno je što fizičkog, što psihičkog truda uloženo u sve ovo, pa se iskreno nadam da će barem komadić toga biti vidljiv ova četiri dana koja su pred vama i da nam neumoljivi Murphyev zakon neće biti baš vjerni pratitelj kao u proteklih mjesec dana - jer vjerujte mi, bilo je tu svega - i neću se uopće čuditi ako se na jednoj od 15 projekcija koje slijede platno samo odjedanput, iz vedra neba ("jer mu je jednostavno tako došlo") raspukne na pola. Al' upravo je u tome draž što festivalskog, što producentskog posla - od nemogućeg raditi moguće. I kad se jednom zaraziš time, gotovo je... Kronična, neizlječiva bolest.

Jer da nije, tko bi u grad koji ima ukupno 18 gledatelja u kinu mjesečno doveo festival? Tko bi nakon samo jedne jedine organizacije nacionalne revije, sljedeće godine uveo i internacionalnu kategoriju zapravo cijeli novi festival? Tko bi nakon 6 prošlogodišnjih projekcija ove godine ukupno brojku povećao na čak njih 15? Tko? Samo luda osoba ili ona koja se nepovratno zaljubila kako u film, tako i u vlastiti grad. A vjerujte mi, po tom pitanju, barem na ovom projektu, nisam usamljena.

Tako vam je šaćica karlovačkih filmskih "luđačića" (prosječna dob članova ekipe je 17 godina!) ove godine izuzev najreprezentativnije nacionalne srednjoškolske filmske produkcije pripremila i onu internacionalnu. Gosti Four River Film Festivala dolaze iz Kanade, Velike Britanije, Libanona, Srbije, Slovenije i Bosne i Hercegovine. Isto tako u ponudi je i više nego interesantan popratni program - od "Filmskog 5+" programa za najmlađe filmove kreiranog od samih klasika dječje produkcije do za Oscara nominiranog crtića "Persepolis", najnovijeg filma Petra Krelje i još mnogo, mnogo toga o čemu ćete moći pročitati između korica ovog kataloga. Ali, molim vas - ne zaustavite se samo na čitanju! Velika dvorana Gradske kazališta "Zorin dom" vas željno očekuje!

Jer, od 4. do 7. rujna Karlovac je hit destinacija za srednjoškolski film! I više ste nego dobrodošli!

MARIJA RATKOVIC

coordinator of The 13th Croatian Youth Film and Video Making Festival and the 1st Four River Film Festival

Everything started (or should I say continued, if we take into consideration last year's 12th festival) with this e-mail. In the meantime 1564 e-mails were sent (according to the statistical data of my Gmail account) both, in Inbox and Outbox. Minutes of conversations in the mobile and fix networks are better not to count (friendly ones as well as the threatening SMS messages) it is better to leave out the amounts on my phone bills as well. All in all, when I look back at the past 11 months there was a lot of physical as well as psychological effort invested in all of this, so I honestly hope that at least small part of it will be visible during these 4 days that are ahead of us and that pitiless Murphy's law will not be our loyal friend like in the past month because, believe me, lot of things have happened and I will not be surprised if the screen all of the sudden, out of nowhere (only because it felt like that), breaks into half during one of the 15 projections that will be projected. But exactly these kind of things give all of the charm to the festivals', as well as the producer's job making possible out of impossible. And once you are finished, that's it... Chronic, incurable disease.

If it wasn't so, who would bring a festival in the town that monthly has 18 viewers total in the local cinema? Who would, after organizing only one national festival, introduce an international category next year actually, a whole new festival? Who would after 6 projections projected last year raise the number to 15? Who? Only a crazy person or the one hopelessly in love with film, as well as his/her town. And trust me, considering this, at least in this project, I am not alone.

That is how a group of film "lunatics" from Karlovac (team member's average age is 17 years!), apart from being the most representative national secondary school film production this year has prepared also the international festival. Guests of Four River Film Festival are coming from Canada, Great Britain, Lebanon, Serbia, Slovenia and Bosnia and Herzegovina. We also have more than interesting accompanying program starting with "Film 5+" for the youngest filmophils made of only classics in the children production, all the way to the animated film nominated for the Oscar award called "Persepolis", the latest movie directed by Petar Krelja and a lot more which you will be able to read about between the covers of this catalog. But, please don't stop only at reading! The main hall of the City theater "Zorin dom" is eagerly waiting for you!

Because, from September 4th till September 7th Karlovac is a hit destination for secondary school film! You are more than welcome!

13. REVIJA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI & 1st FOUR RIVER FILM FESTIVAL

Kada ti je netko tako blizak i drag kao ova moja karlovačka djeca, kako ih od milja zovem, onda je uistinu teško napisati par objektivnih rečenica - stoga se uistinu nadam da ćete iz sljedećih nekoliko pomalo suhoparnih redaka moći pročitati svu bit 13. Revije i od ove godine 1. Four River Film Festivala.

Kada su mi prije dvije godine Karlovčani došli sa željom da organizacijski preuzmu Reviju za mladež, nisam niti sama bila svjesna što će se sve iz toga izroditи. Prije svega, i ove godine potvrđena je opravdanost razdvajanja revijske prezentacije filmskog i videotvaralaštva djece i mladeži, koja se sve do unazad tri godine organizirala zajedničkim snagama osnovnoškolaca i srednjoškolaca. O tome najbolji govori činjenica o 61 prijavljenom filmu - točnije o 485 minuta programa. U glavnu selekciju ušla su 33 filma ili 288 minuta programa. Nije na odmet spomenuti da svi filmovi dolaze iz 16 filmskih udruga, ali i od strane 8 samostalnih autora-srednjoškolaca, koji su zapravo nazavao kako postoji interes srednjoškolske mladeži i onda kad izostane podrška društva. Osim povećanja broja prijavljenih filmova pozitivan pomak u odnosu na proteklu godinu je i geografska rasprostranjenost filmskog djelovanja - srednjoškolski filmski uratci pristigli su iz svih dijelova Hrvatske - od Dubrovnika do Osijeka, što najbolje govori o potencijalima sedme umjetnosti na ovim prostorima.

Jednako tako, što se međunarodnog dijela tiče, odnosno Four River Film Festivala - brojka od 27 prijavljenih filmova (ili minuta programa) svjedoči o tome da interes za festival takvog tipa na ovom području u svakom slučaju postoji - zastupljeni su autori od Slovenije do Kanade. A sama brojka filmova je i dovoljno velika za dobar temelj i dovoljno mala za daljnji razvoj istih. Stoga, ne da mislim, nego sam apsolutno sigurna da će je Karlovčani iduće godine ne udvostručiti, nego utrostručiti - ako zbog ničega, onda jednostavno zbog dobrih festivalskih vibracija koje će se primjenom zakona fizike proširiti dalje i kao takve pasti na plodno tlo.

Dakle, sada vam ne preostaje ništa drugo nego da se prepustite Karlovčanima u ruke i ova četiri dana uživate u onome što su oni za vas radili u ostalih 362!

Dobrodošli!

Rođen u Karlovcu 1983. Od 1995. do 2002. pohađa tečaj crtanja i slikanja kod akademске slikarice Aleksandre Gorete. Sudjeluje na dvadesetak skupnih izložbi, a 1998. ima prvu samostalnu izložbu.

U Gimnaziji Karlovac 1999. godine, u suradnji s prof. Damirom Jelićem i nekolicinom kolega, osniva školsku sekciju Videodružina Gimnazije Karlovac koja i danas djeluje. Za vrijeme srednjoškolskog školovanja sudjelovao je u realizaciji tridesetak kratkometražnih, animiranih, dokumentarnih i igranih filmova te napravio tri autorska animirana filma.

2002. god. s nekolicinom kolega iz Videodružine osniva Kinoklub Karlovac gdje se i dalje bavi filmom, posebice animiranim, i organizacijom, te pomaže mlađim članovima Kinokluba Karlovac i Videodružine Gimnazije Karlovac u realizaciji njihovih filmova. U istom klubu od 2002. do 2007. obnaša dužnost dopredsjednika kluba.

2006. godine diplomira na Akademiji likovnih umjetnosti u Zagrebu na Odsjeku za animirani film i nove medije s filmom "Žene na brodu".

Od 2005. godine voditelj je programa Škole crtanog filma "Dubrava" u Narodnom sveučilištu Dubrava u Zagrebu gdje radi s djecom osnovnoškolskog i srednjoškolskog uzrasta. Od 2005. do danas bio je voditelj desetak radionica animiranog filma za djecu i mladež u organizaciji Narodnog sveučilišta Dubrava, Šibenskog dječjeg festivala, Hrvatskog filmskog saveza i Kinokluba Karlovac.

Sa svojim autorskim filmovima sudjelovao je na brojnim domaćim i inozemnim filmskim festivalima, revijama i izložbama. Za iste je višestruko nagradivan. Trenutno živi i radi na relaciji Karlovac - Zagreb.

Vjekoslav Živković was born in Karlovac in 1983. Between 1995 and 2002 he attended drawing and painting course given by the academic painter Aleksandra Goreta. He participated in about twenty group exhibitions and in 1998 he had his first single exhibition.

In 1999, in cooperation with his teacher Damir Jelić and a few of his colleagues, he founded a school section called Videodružina Gimnazije Karlovac which is active even today. In the section he participated in making of about thirty short films (animated, documentary and fiction) and he also made his three animated films there.

In 2002 he founded the Cinema Club Karlovac. In the Club, he is engaged in film making, with a special focus on animated films. He is also taking part in organization matters and is helping young members in realization of their own films. Between 2002 and 2007 he was the vice-president of the Club.

In 2006 he graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb on the section for animated movies and new media with his movie "Women on board".

Since 2005 he has been working in the School of animated film "Dubrava" at Dubrava Open University in Zagreb. As the group leader, he works with young children from primary and secondary schools. Since then, he has been in charge of about ten animated film workshops for kids and youth (organized by Dubrava Open University, Šibenik Kids Festival, Croatian Film Clubs' Association and Cinema Club Karlovac).

He took part in lots of local and foreign film festivals and exhibitions, where he won multiple awards. Currently, he is simultaneously working and living in Karlovac and Zagreb.

AMIN

Ocenjivački sud 1. Four River Film Festivala Jury of the 1st Four River Film Festival

U mladosti se Amin Dora predstavio kao libanonski redatelj u oglašivačkoj industriji. Već tada ga je ALBA prepoznala po talentu i maštovitom stilu.

"Grey Scale", kratki animirani film kojega je producirao kao student, nagrađen je na mnogim nacionalnim i međunarodnim festivalima kao što su 50. festival kratkog filma u Bilbau i Europski film festival. Njegov je film "mesh enta..?", u kojem u režiji je i glumio, plijenio mnogo pažnje.

Ambicija i motivacija uskoro su dale rezultat i on nastavlja svoju profesionalnu karijeru s glazbenim videom "Belong" za libanonsku rock grupu "Blend", prvu potpisano rock grupu u regiji (EMI). Nakon toga režirao je seriju osebujnih reklamnih koncepta, a po prvi puta se poslužio miješanjem medija za video libanonske rap/hip-hop grupe "Aks'ser".

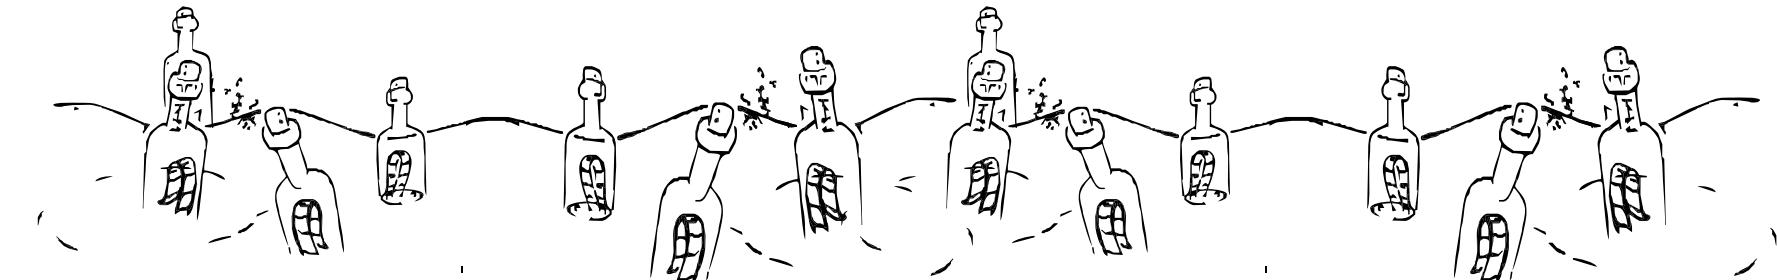

2007. je započeo s miksanjem videa na radionicu VJ Kama te su mu se tako otvorili novi horizonti vizualne inovacije. Uskoro je s kolegom osnovao Labo-Strongsky VJ i pratilo mnoge lokalne i međunarodne DJ-e kao što su Jade, PVD, Above & Beyond i Jamie Jones.

At early age, Amin Dora was able to distinguish himself as a Lebanese director in the advertising industry. He was already recognized at ALBA for his talented and imaginative style.

Grey Scale, the short animation film he produced as a student was awarded in many national and international festivals like the Bilbao 50th short film festival, and the European film festival. Also his short film " mesh enta..?" where he acted and directed was also able to grab many attentions.

Ambition and motivation soon kicked in and he pursued his professional career starting with "Belong" the music video for a Lebanese rock band "Blend" the first signed Rock Band in the region (EMI). Then he directed a series of distinctive ads concept, and he used the mixed media for the first time in the region with "Aks'ser" video a Lebanese rap/hip-hop group. Dora is always searching for new trends and moods unique for each project.

In 2007 he started VJing with VJ Kama's workshop at the basement, and here where the new horizons of visual innovations opens to him. He soon created with a colleague the Labo-Strongsky VJs and played with many local and international DJ's such as Jade, PVD, Above & Beyond, and Jamie Jones. On a personal level Dora Played with Jade And P - toile in an international event in Milan.

Šamanović: Zanimljiv koncept s plišanim igračkama u glumačkim interpretacijama, no presporo i pretnomo. Neujednačenost u tehničkoj kvaliteti slike dodatno otežava gledanje ovog predugog filma.

Picula: Da su autori odlučili snimiti svoju verziju "Obitelji Soprano" s igračkama umjesto s glumcima, sve bi bilo dobro. Jedini je preduvjet da u njima igračke nisu puki promatrači pred kamerama. Pohvale za ideju i izbor simpatičnih plišanih igračaka, a primjedbe za razvlačenje radnje i manjak pokretnih slika. Podite od engleske riječi movie...

Živković: Dečki nastavljaju sa svojim već izgrađenim stilom. Jedina zamjerka je nedostatak samokritičnosti jer film bi morao biti kraći i jasniji. Škare bi u scenariju i montaži trebale više odrezati.

Šamanović: An interesting concept with fluffy toys as actors, but too slow and too dull. Unequalized technical quality makes this long film difficult to watch.

Picula: If the authors had decided to shoot their own version of The Sopranos using toys instead of actors, everything would have turned out fine. The only precondition is that the toys are not just mere observers in front of the camera. Praise for the idea and the choice of cute plush toys and objections to action stretching and the lack of 'moving images'. Start from the English word movie...

Živković: The boys continue with their characteristic style. The only reproach is the introspection because the film should be shorter and clearer. 'The scissors' in screenplay and editing should cut more.

Picula: Uspjelo, nepretenciozno kombiniranjeigranog i animiranog materijala koje je istodobno likovno i sadržajno čisto i uvjerljivo. Šarmantni Fuki unatoč reduciranoj crtežu itekako je ekspresivan. Slijedi li njegova nova akcija?

Živković: Muka animatora prikazana uigrano-animiranom filmu nije nova i originalna animirana tema, ali je korektno tehnički odrađena.

Šamanović: Simple and likeable. An interesting combination of fiction and animated form with excellent music selection.

Picula: Successful and unpretentious combining of fiction and animated material which is at the same time artistically and substantially clear and convincing. Charming Fuki is very expressive in spite of reduced drawing. What is he up to next time?

Živković: Animator's trouble shown in fiction-animated film is no news but it is technically well-made.

Šamanović: Uopće mi nije jasno što je ovo. Pretpostavljam da se radi o internom karikaturalnom igroku satkanom od prepoznatljivih karakternih odredica nastavnika zaposlenih u školi koju pohadaju autori ovog filma. Filma? Možda je prikladnije ovaj uradak definirati kao niz gotovo statičnih karikatura. A od otvaranja i zatvaranja usta na karikaturi do animiranog filma dalek je put...

Picula: Kao prvo autorima treba čestitati na iznimnom trudu jer realizirati animirani film u trajanju prošjećne epizode humoristične serije itekako je zahtijevan posao. Također, plus je filma i dopadljiv crtež likova koji otkriva darovito oko i ruku. Problem pak prejerana statičnost i sadržajni propust da se konkretni zaplet i karakteri učine univerzalno razumljivima. Napokon, što je s tonom? Podnaslov su zgodan dodatak, ali zvuk je zvuk...

Živković: Ovaj film ima jako puno manjkavosti. Pretpostavljam da je isključivo riječ o nedostatu znanja i da je riječ o prvom filmu. Filmu manjka zvuk, a za to nema nikavog razloga, budući da se film ničim nama poznatim ne referira na slapstick nijeme komedije iz 20-ih godina prošlog stoljeća. Ono što obećava je animacija i ona pokazuje da možemo puno očekivati od ove autorice.

Šamanović: I have no idea what this is. My best guess is that what we see here is a play as an insider's caricature made out of easily recognizable characteristic quirks of the teachers in the school that the authors of the film go to. Film? It might be more suitable to define this work as a sequence of almost static caricatures. And there is a long way from opening and closing mouths of the mentioned caricatures to making an actual animated film...

Picula: Firstly, I have to congratulate the authors for extraordinary effort because to realize an animated film with duration of an average comedy series is a hard work. Moreover, another positive thing is a lovable character drawing which unveils a talented 'eye' and 'hand'. The problem of the film is its excessive static quality and there is an omission in the content because specific plot and characters are not universally intelligible. Finally, what happened with the tone? Subtitles are a pretty accessory, but sound is something else...

Živković: This film has many flaws. I assume it is because there is a lack of knowledge and we are talking about the author's first film. The sound is missing without a reason and the film does not refer to slapstick silent comedies from the 20's by anything we know. But the animation is promising and it shows we can expect a lot from this author in the future.

Poštarove muke The Postman's Troubles

13. REVIIA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Vječni rat poštara i pasa u ovom filmu nadilazi fizički susret psećeg zuba u poštarskim hlačama. Ovdje se njih dvojica nadmudruju svim dozvoljenim i nedozvoljenim sredstvima. Duhovit odabir glazbe potpuno je u skladu s animacijom, a dodani šumovi jamstvo su smješta na pravim mjestima.

Picula: Spoj burleske i blage erotike. Ovaj živahan i zabavan film podsjeća na gogove slavnog britanskog komičara Benneyja Hilla, no animacija se našla u procjepu između karikature i pravog filma.

Živković: Klasična i već prokušana tema u animiranom filmu. Nažalost, ostavlja dojam da je za tako nešto ipak bilo potrebno angažirati nešto bolje crtače.

Šamanović: The eternal war between postmen and dogs does not limit itself to the physical encounter of dog's teeth and postman's pants in this film. Here the two of them outsmart each other on all possible and impossible ways. The funny music selection is totally in accordance with the animation and the added sounds are the warranty for laughing in all the right places.

Picula: A clash of burlesque and soft erotics, this vivid and entertaining film remains me of famous British comedian Benny Hill and his gags. But there was an air gap in animation between caricature and real film.

Živković: Classical and already tested topic in animated films. Unfortunately this one leaves the impression that it was necessary to involve better artists to draw something like this.

Šamanović: Atraktivna, ali nemetljiva animacija kao da se prepiče s glazbenom podlogom. Povremene dramaturške manjkavosti prekriva režijska vještina. Ugodan za gledanje.

Picula: Gledajući ovaj iznimno liričan i čuvstven film, imate osjećaj kao da i vas negdje čeka sretna ljubav. Autoričin crtež likova i pozadine mekih obrisa i snažnog kolorita, uz savršeni osjećaj za njihovo glazbeno naglašavanje, čine film pravim doživljajem koji zaziva neka od najuglednijih imena svjetske animacije. No prava je vrijednost filma istovremena mladost i autorska zrelost njegove autorice od koje se u budućnosti može jako puno očekivati. Od Karlovca i Zagreba do Annecya i Los Angelesa.

Živković: -

Šamanović: Attractive but unobtrusive animation which intertwines with musical background. Occasional acting defects are covered by editing skills. Pleasant for watching.

Picula: While watching this exceptionally lyrical and emotional film you have the feeling that there is deep love somewhere out there waiting for you. Author's character drawing, soft background and powerful colours, together with a perfect feeling for their musical emphasis, make this film a true adventure which calls for some of the most prolific names in the world of animation. But the true value of this film is author's simultaneous youth and maturity, from which we can expect a lot in the future. From Karlovac and Zagreb to Annecy and Los Angeles.

Utjeha kose

The Comfort of Hair

Šamanović: Poetska animacija dosljedno interpretira stihove Matoševa soneta. Govoreći o smrti, ovaj je film zavijen u crno, dok animirani likovi u toj crnini trepere. Baš poput zibanja kose. Sjajan ugodač.

Picula: Ovo je rad koji bi zbog svoje iznimne likovnosti, kompozicije te sinergije crtež i glazbe mogao bez problema biti uvršten na vodeće svjetske festivalne animiranog filma. Hrvatska animacija nedvojbeno ima sjajnu budućnost, samo je treba podržati i dati joj priliku.

Živković: -

Šamanović: Poetical animation consistently interprets the lyrics of the sonet from Croatian poet Matoš. It talks about death and is all wrapped up in blackness but the animated characters sparkle in that darkness. Just like hair moving. Excellent atmosphere.

Šamanović: Klasična TV forma kojom autori opisuju povijest brodske gimnazije nije ništa više od video interpretacije povijesnog slijeda zbivanja. Oslanjanje na režijsku poetiku koja je bila aktualna prije par desetljeća više šteti nego koristi. Bolje je pogriješiti istražujući svoje osobne autorske stavove i pristupe nego imitirati tuđe.

Picula: Snimiti film o svojoj školi, i još k tome o njezinoj obljetnici, sigurno nije jednostavan zadatak. Treba ostvariti optimalan spoj priče, faktografije i vizualnih informacija. Sve je to dobrim dijelom zastupljeno u ovom filmu, ali bi završni rezultat bio bolji da su autori u svom pristupu bili zaigraniji i neopterećeni težinom zadatka.

Živković: U ovaj film uložen je golem trud. Nažalost, učinak nije uspio impresionirati, već se ispuštati. Od srednjoškolaca (malih buntovnika) se ipak mora i treba očekivati nešto moderniji i ekspresivniji pristup filmskoj formi i bilo kojoj temi.

Šamanović: The classical TV form which the authors use to describe the history of the grammar school from Slavonski Brod is just a video interpretation of the historical events. To depend on the directorial sentiment that was popular a couple a decades ago does more damage than good. It is better to make a mistake while seeking for your own style and approach than to imitate someone else's.

Picula: To shoot a film about your school and its anniversary is surely not an easy task because you have to combine the right amount of story, facts and visual information. All these elements exist in this film, but the final result would have been a lot better if the authors had had a more playful approach, free of 'the burden' of the task.

Živković: A lot of effort was made into this film but, unfortunately, it did not manage to impress me, yet it made me fall asleep. We should and we have to expect a more modern and more expressive approach to film forms or any other topics or media expressions from high-school students (little rebels).

Šamanović: Ovo je zapravo jako dobra TV reportaža realizirana isključivo u talking heads maniri, što nimalo ne umanjuje autorskú vrijednost rada. Dapaće! Ljudi pred kamerom odgovaraju na dobro osmišljen niz pitanja, a njihovi odgovori, naknadno složeni u promišljen montažni niz, stvaraju interesantnu formu prepunu indikativnih spoznaja.

Picula: Vječna tema žensko-muških odnosa dobila je u ovom spoju anketne, reportaže i dokumentarca dobro elaboriran mozaik najvažnijih elemenata tih odnosa, osobito (nažalost) aktualno pitanje nasilja. Autori su izabrali elokventne sugovornike, ali bi bilo još bolje da su im dodali i odgovarajuće vizualne krojice.

Živković: Ovo je ipak TV reportaža, ali dobra TV reportaža. Tema se pokazala jako zahvalnom, a uradak zanimljivim.

Šamanović: This is in fact a very good TV report shot only in the 'talking heads' manner, which does not diminish the value of author's work. The people in front of the camera answer a number of well-prepared questions and their answers, later set in a deliberate editing sequence, create an interesting form full of indicative knowledge.

Picula: The eternal topic of female-male relations got a well-elaborated mosaic of the most important elements of these relations in this mixture of questionnaire, report and documentary, focusing especially on the recent violence issue (unfortunately). The authors picked eloquent speakers but it would have been even better if they had added appropriate visual sketches.

Živković: This is a TV report after all, but it's a good TV report... The topic was rewarding when it comes to interlocutors so the film was interesting to watch.

Šamanović: Nešto poput RTL-ove "Večere za 5". Video recept. Ako ništa drugo, naučio sam kako se spravlja ajvar, pa ukoliko je to bila autorska namjera, uspjeli su. Malo mirnija kamera i kvalitetnije snimljen zvuk značajno bi popravili vizualnu komponentu ovog filma. Sve u svemu - "U slast!"

Picula: Evo pravog namjensko-edukativnog filma nakon kojeg je nemoguće ne oglasnjeti i posegnuti za naslovnom delicijom. Iako je realizacija namjerno ili neramjerno uskladena s razinom produkcije pojedinih hrvatskih televizijskih postaja, film ima čudan šarm i unatoč svim nesavršenostima od snimanja do strukture održava pozornost do kraja. Osobito ako ste gladni.

Živković: -

Šamanović: Something like the show 'Ready. Steady. Cook'. A video recipe. If nothing else, I have learned how to prepare red-pepper chutney, so if that was authors' intention, they made it! A steadier camera and better sound recording would significantly improve the visual component of the film. Altogether: 'Enjoy your meal'.

Picula: This is a real commercial-educative film after which you have to be hungry and reach for the food in question. Even though the realization is, intentionally or not, coherent with the production level of some Croatian TV stations, the film has a special charm and it keeps you focused in spite of its imperfections like shooting and structure. Especially if you are hungry.

Šamanović: Među filmskim amaterima brojni su autori koji svojim filmovima opisuju neki tradicijski obrt ili običaj. Snimanje takvih filmova je važno jer će nerijetko upravo oni ostati jedino svjedočanstvo vremena i vrijednosti kojih više neće biti. Ovaj je film zanimljiv i solidno realiziran, pa čak u nekim segmentima poput montaže i ambicioznij nego što bi se očekivalo.

Picula: Informativan i realizacijom pedantan dokumentarac propustio je biti dinamičniji i komunikativniji tako da nakon nekoliko minuta izgubi pozornost gledatelja.

Živković: Film koji nastoji uhvatiti i sačuvati vrijeme za naraštaje koji dolaze jer je to jedini način da saznaju kako se nekad nešto radilo. Ambiciozno, ali na visini zadatka.

Making films like this one is an important task because, more often than not, they turn out to be the only testimony of past times and values. This is an interesting, well-made film and, in some aspects such as editing, even more ambitious than one might expect.

Picula: This informative and realizationally precise documentary lacks in dynamic and outgoingness, so it loses spectator's attention after just few minutes.

Živković: A film that tries to catch and preserve time for future generations, because the only way to find out how things were made in the past is to watch the film. Ambitious but carried out at high level.

13. REVIJA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Gita je svojom pojavom, inteligencijom, dopadljivošću i prije svega susretljivošću prema filmskoj ekipi ponudila puno više od onog što su autori iskoristili. Nakon nekog (kratčeg) vremena dosadi gledati lica koja se izmjenjuju pričajući o osobi koja bi trebala biti centralna ličnost dokumentarnog filma.

Picula: Vodeća je odlika ovog filma čimbenik iznenadenja jer autori lucidno odgadaju središnju temu svoga uratka. Kada ona postane poznata, film gubi na dinamici jer i ovde autori propuštaju ispričati više slikom, a manje izjavama. Ipak, tematski zaokružen i realizacijom pregnantan film. Gita je mlađa osoba koju uistinu vrijedi vidjeti i poslušati na filmu.

Živković: Klasično ustrojen dokumentarac (P. Krelja) koji portretira neku posebnu osobu i kroz nju progovara o nečem većem. Gita je zahvalan suradnik i ovaj je film u svakom pogledu uspio.

Šamanović: With her personality, wit, charm and, above all, openness towards the film crew, Gita offered a lot more than the authors made use of. After a while, you get tired of watching different people talking about the person who is supposed to be the key figure of the film.

Picula: The leading characteristic of this film is the surprise factor because the authors lucidly postpone the central topic of the film. Once the topic is discovered, the film becomes less dynamical because the authors fail to tell more by using image instead of speaking. Nevertheless, this is thematically rounded-off and remarkably realized film. Gita is a young person worth seeing and listening on screen.

Živković: A classically structured documentary (P. Krelja) that portrays a 'special' person and talks about a greater picture through that person. Gita is a respectful associate and we can call this film a success.

Dečko sa strane The Boy on the Side

13. REVIJA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Tema dokumentarnog filma može biti sve, baš sve. Samo treba pronaći način da se dokumentarni filmski priča ispriča na zanimljiv način. To je, naravno, jednostavnije ukoliko s autorom suraduju osobe ispred kamere. Mladić iz ovog filma to radi sjajno. Inteligent osamnaestogodišnjak ima jasne i nedvojbeno stavove. Još ne zna što će u životu, i to je prirodno, ali savršeno zna kako će kroz njega, a to je srća koja mnogima nikada u životu ne zabilježe. Velika je stvar da su autori ovog filma tu rijetku vrlinu prepoznali i na njoj utemeljili svoj film.

Picula: Netipičan mladić i glazbenik pravi je izbor za dokumentarni portret. To znači da autori filma znaju što je najvažnije prije no što padne prva klapa - pronaći pravu filmsku temu. Unatoč (pre)jednostavnoj premissi, film protječe dinamično zahvaljujući upravo svom plastičnom središnjem liku i izboru glazbe. Jedini je problem duljina trajanja te je film u načelu trebao biti vremenski zgušnutiji.

Živković: Film jasne strukture, jasne teme i izuzetno zahvalnog glavnog aktera koji je ujedno i iznimna ličnost. Šteta što je malo takvih, ali uvijek razvesele kad ih se pronade. Sve povhale redatelju.

Šamanović: A topic for a documentary can be anything. Literally anything. All you have to do is find a way to retell a documentary in an interesting way. That is, of course, much easier if the people in front of the camera cooperate with the author. The young man from this film is great at doing that. The intelligent 18-year-old has clear and undoubtful attitudes. He still does not know what to do in life and that is natural, but he knows perfectly how to go through life and that is a bliss which will never come to some people. It is a great thing that the authors have recognized this rare virtue and have based their film on it.

Picula: An untypical young man and musician is the right choice for making a documentary portrait. That means that the authors exactly know what matters before the filming has started. To find a real film topic. In spite of (too) simple premise, the film flows dynamically thanks to its plastic main character and choice of music. The only problem is a film duration and the film should have been more condensed.

Živković: A film with a clear structure, topic and extremely rewarding actor, who is extraordinary. It's a shame that there is a mere handful of people like him, but once we find them, they cheer us up. Compliments to the director.

13. REVIJA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Namjenski film se rijetko sreće u programima neprofesionalnih filmskih smotri. Možda je u pitanju neatraktivnost ove filmske forme široj publici ili naglašena (često nimalo suptilna) poruka oko koje zapravo ovakav film i nastaje. Kako god, ovaj je namjenski film zanatski koliko toliko solidno posložen, ali dramatičnost pročitanog teksta kojim autori "žicaju" Europu da na ovaj ili onaj način pomogne gradu u kojem žive, stvaraju prejaku potrebu za što skorijim pojavljivanjem odjavne špicje.

Picula: Glina je "mali grad s velikim srcem", ali nažalost "polako umire". S ovim postavkama odmah na početku filma autori daju do znanja da njihov rad ima zadatak promjeniti stvari nabolje. Ponešto predramatičan i patetičan, ipak pogoda cilj. I u tom je smislu uspao. Da su ispred kamera dominirali mladi stanovnici Glina, poenta o budućnosti bila bi efektnija.

Živković: Namjenski film s jasnom porukom, što je i bit namjenskog filma - puca u cilj.

Šamanović: Commercial films are not often present in programs of unprofessional film events. The reason for that might be the unattractiveness of this film form to a broader public or the stressed and often not subtle message which is the reason for making of such film. However, this commercial film is more or less well organized, but the drama that the authors create and beg for Europe to help their town in one way or another makes the viewer long for the sign-off.

Picula: Glina is 'a small town with a big heart' but, unfortunately, it is 'dying slowly'. With this thesis at the beginning of the film the authors send the signal that their work has the mission to change it for the better. A bit too dramatical and pathetic, it hits the target nevertheless. And in that sense we can say it is a success. If younger population from Glina was in front of the camera, the message would be more effective.

Živković: Commercial film with a clear message, which is its goal, it hits the target.

Šamanović: Film o životu i tajanstvenoj smrti književnika Frana Galovića. Upravo tajnovitost njegove smrti sjajan je predložak za zanimljiv i dramaturški razrađen dokumentarac kojeg autori ovog filma na žalost nisu prepoznali. Tajanstvenost je tek natuknuta, a dokumentarac se uokvirio u pomalo sterilnu televizijsku formu.

Picula: Jedno od osnovnih pravila snimanja televizijskih reportaža i dokumentarnih filmova je naučiti razliku među njima. U prvom je slučaju postulat poštivanje novinarskog načela prezentacije i komentara informacija, a u drugom umjetnička reinterpretacija stvarnosti. Autori su izabrali neprijeporno zanimljivu temu, ali je izostala njezina razrada.

Živković: Ovaj film pomalo podsjeća na film "90. obljetnica Gimnazije Matija Mesić" jer je također strukturiran kao zastanjela TV dokumentarna forma. Opet naglašavam, da srednjoškolaca očekujem veću inventivnost. Neki puta veliki trud ne znači i uspjeh u konačnici.

Šamanović: A film about the life and death of Croatian poet Fran Galović. It is the mystery surrounding his death that makes an excellent topic of an interesting and dramatically elaborated documentary that the authors of this film, unfortunately, did not recognize. With only a hint of the mystery, this documentary settled into a somewhat sterile TV-form.

Picula: One of the basic rules for shooting TV reports and documentary films is to know the difference between them. In the first case the postulate is to respect the journalistic principle of presentation and commenting the information and in the second the artistic interpretation of the reality. The authors have chosen a very interesting topic, but what lacks is its elaboration.

Živković: This film resembles the film '90th Anniversary of Matija Mesić Grammar School' because it is also structured like an old-fashioned TV documentary form. I stress again, I expect more imagination from high-school kids. Whereas, trying hard doesn't have to mean great success in the end.

Šamanović: Pomalo klasičan i televizijskoj formi blizak dokumentarizam, no realiziran gotovo besprijeckorno. Tema je bolest i autori joj pristupaju s dužnom ozbiljnošću.

Picula: I u ovom je filmu tema, anoreksija kod mladih, dobro izabrana jer korespondira i s vremenom i s publikom. Realizacija je ponešte predviđljiva, ali i dalje seriozna u pristupu i koncizna u sadržaju. Film je idealan za televizijsko emitiranje.

Živković: Klasičan TV-dokumentarac, izvrsno odraden, s jasnim i poučnim ciljem. Film za svaku povalu, osim što bi autori mogli biti malo i inovativniji u budućim projektima.

Šamanović: A bit classical documentary close to television form, realized almost without a flaw. The topic is illness and the authors approached it with all due respect.

Picula: This film's topic is also youth anorexia well-chosen because it corresponds to the time and audience. Realization is a bit predictable but also serious in its approach and concise in its content. Film is ideal for TV broadcast.

Živković: A classical TV documentary, well-made and with a clear and instructive goal. A praiseworthy film, but the authors should be a bit more innovative in future.

Šamanović: Vrijedan dokumentarac u kojem snimanje pomalo neurednom kamerom iz ruke nalazi sjajnu primjenu jer je u potpunosti u skladu s kaotičnim sadržajem. Primjedbe se odnose na nisku kvalitetu snimljenog zvuka, velik broj nepotrebnih zumova i izjave koje bi bolje funkcionirale u filmu da su, kao i ostatak materijala, snimljene iz ruke.

Picula: Kada dosljedno realiziranu temu filma poprati stvaranje odgovarajućeg ozračja, autori filma i gledatelji uistinu mogu biti zadovoljni. Prikaz života romske nacionalne manjine u konkretnoj sredini izveden je filmski pismeno i jasno unatoč povremenim problemima s fokusiranjem na segmente priče i zvukom koji ne prati kakvoću ostatka filma.

Živković: Pomalo me smetalo što fotografija nije bolja, no ona kao takva stilski odgovara temi. Još jedna stvar koja me ugodno iznenadila u ovom filmu je što tema, koja je u isti mah i jako zahvalna, ali i jako zahtjevna, nije bila veća od autora.

Šamanović: This is a valuable documentary in which the hand shooting with a bit sloppy camera is totally in accordance with the chaotic content. The negative sides are the low quality of the sound recording, excessive usage of unnecessary zooms and text passages that would work better if they were hand-shot like the rest of the material.

Picula: When a coherently realized film topic is followed by creation of adequate atmosphere, the film authors and the audience should be really happy. The Romany minority's way of life in a specific surrounding is well done in spite of occasional problems of focusing on some segments of the story and the sound that does not follow the quality of other film elements.

Živković: It bothered me a little that the photography wasn't better but, as it is, nevertheless, it matches the topic stylistically. Another thing that surprised me in this film is the fact that the topic, which is very rewarding but also challenging at the same time, was not larger than the author.

Šamanović: Promišljanja mladog bećara o Slavoniji, ženama i Europskim integracijama kroz prizmu kolinja, čvaraka i kulena. Dopadljivo i veselo.

Picula: Misli globalno, djeluj lokalno. Slavonski običaji ispričani na autentičan i informativan način mogu biti itekako zanimljiv proizvod na svjetskom tržištu, od polica trgovina do gastroreturizma. Zato ih treba realizirati filmski plastičnije i manje predvidljivo.

Živković: Iako me se klanje na velikom platnu nije nimalo dojmilo, niti me takvi prizori privlače, ovaj film ostavio je na mene samo pozitivan dojam. Prikazuje slavonsku tradiciju koja bi, zahvaljujući nekim zakonskim aktima, mogla bi biti zabranjena.

Šamanović: Contemplations of a young man from Slavonia about his region, women and European integrations through the specter of pig-slaughter, cracklings and kulen, special Slavonian paprika-flavored salami. Lovable and cheerful.

Picula: Think globally, act locally. Slavonian customs told in an authentic and informative way can be a very interesting product on the world market, from shop shelves to gastrotourism. That is why they should be made in a more plastic and less predictable way.

Živković: Even though slaughter on big screen did not impress me at all nor am I attracted to that kind of scenes, this film has made a positive impression because it shows us Slavonian traditions which could be erased and forbidden, if some laws were enforced, like long forgotten past...

Šamanović: Stvaralački i znanstveni značaj Nikole Tesle ovim je filmom sveden na pojašnjavanje naziva srednje škole što unosi zbrku u shvaćanje razloga njegova nastanka. Film spašava činjenica što je donekle koncipiran u formi promidžbenog spota pa je autorska sloboda donekle opravdana.

Picula: Nikola Tesla sa svojim djelom i porukama treba ostati trajno nadahnucé. Atraktivne zamišljene vremenske i karakterna parabola o različitim "Teslama" trebala je pak zaživjeti u nečem slojevitijem od niske opće poznatih stvari.

Živković: Reklamni spot kao i info o samoj školi dobra su kombinacija. Predlažem da ju škola stavi na svoju internetsku stranicu ako to već nije učinila.

Šamanović: In this film, the creativity and scientific work of Nikola Tesla are reduced to explanation of the name of a high school, and that creates confusion about the reason the film was made in the first place. On the other hand, the fact that the film is a kind of a promotion video we can, to some extent, allow for the poetic license of the author.

Picula: Nikola Tesla's life and work should remain an everlasting inspiration. The attractively imagined time and character parable about different 'Teslas' should have become more layered than just enumerating well-known things.

Živković: TV commercial and the information about the school are a good combination and I recommend that the school puts it on its web page if it hasn't done it so far.

Šamanović: Dokumentarni film je puno više od pričanja u kameru. Ovako to izgleda poput intervjua. Dobar film mora imati nekakvu inovaciju u izričaju, a prije svega mora biti zanimljiv. Mora nas zалijepiti sa stolac svojom temom, dramaturgijom, dinamikom režije i montaže ili dobrom fotografijom. Bez ijednog od tih čimbenika, film će teško zadržati gledateljevu pozornost.

Picula: Teta Katica sigurno je zaslужila interesantan prikaz svoje uloge u svakodnevici autora filma koji su bez dvojbe dobranjerni i zainteresirani za svoju junakinju. Međutim prije snimanja filma uvijek treba odgovoriti na sljedeće pitanje: Zašto je osoba ili događaj važan da se o njemu snimi film? I zašto bi to publike gledala? Dakle, zašto...

Šamanović: Documentary has to be a lot more than just talking "to the camera". This makes it an interview. A good film has to be innovative and interesting. It has to make us want to watch it because of its topic, acting, directing and editing dynamics or good photography. Without at least one of the factors, the film will not get audience's attention.

Picula: Mrs Katica surely deserved the interesting description of her role in everyday's life of the authors. Undoubtedly, they were interested and had good intentions with their hero. However, you should always ask yourself this question before the shooting starts: Why is this person or event important to make a film with this topic? And why should the audience see it? So, why...

Šamanović: Ova dobro pripremljena reportaža utemeljena je na vrijednom istraživačkom novinarskom radu i svoje mjesto može pronaći u znanstvenom programu neke od televizija. Njena je ozbiljnost ujedno i njena mana.

Picula: Pravi "odlikuški" uradak u kojem je rečeno sve bitno, i to na jezgrovit način. Ipak, koliko god tema bila ozbiljna, filmu nedostaje ležerniji odmak kako bi se sve što se u filmu vidi i čuje bolje i brže prihvatišto među onima kojima je namijenjen. Namjenski filmovi nužno trebaju unaprijed izabrani apel (emotivni, humoristični...).

Živković: Šteta što se pribjeglo reportažnom obliku. Ipak mi fali dokumentarističkih crta u ovom uratku, ali kao reportaža je za svaku povalu.

Šamanović: This well-arranged report is based on a valuable journalistic research work and can find its place on the scientific programme on TV networks. The seriousness of the coverage is at the same time its flaw.

Picula: A straight-A-film where all that matters has been said in a concise way. Nevertheless, the seriousness of the topic does not demand a serious approach. The film longs for a relaxed detachment from the seriousness in order for the audience to faster accept the things they can see and hear in the film. Commercial films have to pick an address in advance (emotional, humorous...).

Živković: A pity that the authors used the report form; I miss documentary features in this film. But as a report it is praiseworthy.

Šamanović: Tema koja se, nažalost, danas može pronaći na mnogim mjestima. "Takov je trend." Premda je izvedba pomalo škrta svime osim sugovornicima, što ovo djelo postavlja na granicu između dokumentarnog filma i TV reportaže, atraktivnost i raznolikost opisa brojnih problema koji ih pritišće zadržava pažnju gledatelja do samog kraja. Uspjelo, premda bi nedvojbeno bilo snažnije da su autori malo detaljnije slikom opisali daleki Zovik.

Picula: Kada jedan dokumentarni film možemo nazvati uspješnim? Kada prikaz konkretnih ljudi i sredina predstavi na univerzalno razumljiv način. Zovik je u ovom filmu postao simbol jednog prostora i vremena te unatoč svojoj nelakoj temi lucidno promiže optimizam i vjeru u ljudske mogućnosti. Jedino mu nedostaje više totala i detalja samog mjesta.

Živković: Film na granici TV-reportaže i dokumentarnog filma odiše autentičnošću tog kraja, a sugovornici svojim stavovima dočaravaju mentalitet. Nažalost, premda se vidi i sâm kraj u kojem oni žive pa im moramo vjerovati na riječ.

Šamanović: This is a theme that can unfortunately be found anywhere. "That's the trend". Although the performance is rich only in protagonists, which places this film somewhere between a documentary and TV report, what keeps the attention of the viewer until the very end are the appeal and the diversity of the description of the numerous problems troubling them. Successful, but it would have been a lot stronger if the authors had described the remote Zovik in more details using image.

Picula: When can we say that a documentary is successful? When we present specific people and their milleu on a universally understandable way. In this film Zovik has become a symbol of one space and time and it lucidly manages to promote optimism and belief in people's capacities in spite of the complex topic. The only thing that's missing is more long shots and more details about the place.

Živković: A film on the border of a TV report and a documentary emits the authenticity of the region, the protagonists, by sharing their attitudes, evoke the mentality but unfortunately we cannot see much of the surroundings they live in so we have to take their word on it.

Šamanović: Emotivan film s istančanim osjećajem za detalj. Povremeno se stjeće utisak gledanja dokumentarca što je, vjerujem, značajna pohvala svakom autoru igranog filma. Odabir glumaca, kao i njihova priprema, odradeni su izuzetno dobro, dok je snimateljski rad dobrim dijelom na profesionalnoj (!) razini.

Picula: Svojevrsna dokudrama plijeni s jedne strane vrhunskom produkcijom za ovakav tip projekta, a druge jednostavnim zapletom o preživljavanju i nemirenju sa sudbinom. Izvrsno snimljeno i ispričano. Film koji nakon gledanja ostavlja snažan dojam.

Živković: Ovdje je riječ o autoru koji zna što radi i što želi. U svakom je pogledu dobio točno ono što je želio -dobar film.

Šamanović: An emotional film with exquisite sense for details. While viewing, you sometimes get the impression of watching a documentary, which is an important praise to every fiction film author. There was a good selection of actors and they are prepared well and the shooting was mostly done on a professional (!) level.

Picula: A kind of docu-drama captivates with top quality production for a project like this and on the other hand with a simple plot about surviving and rejection to conciliate with your destiny. Told and shot excellently. A film that leaves you with a strong impression after watching.

Šamanović: Simpatična priča ispričana na jednostavan način. Povremeno nevjesta u izvedbi, ponešto preduga, no u svojoj nepretencioznosti ugodna za gledanje.

Picula: Da filmovi s Revije u svom životnom ciklusu imaju etapu kinodistribucije, ovo bi lako mogao postati hit. Zaigrana filmska ekipa realizirala je isto takav film u kojem prevladava otkačeni šarm s autoironijom. Ipak, za okosnicu priče dvadeset minuta trajanja je previše.

Živković: Film teške patetike, nepromišljene glume i lokacija, i još traže predugo. Ipak nije sve crno - ovo je jedan od rijetkih filmova koji se dotakao izuzetno zahtjevne teme od koje bi i profesionalci prezali, samo joj se pristupilo pomalo neorganizirano.

Picula: If the Festival films had a period when they would be shown in the cinemas, this one would be a big hit. Playful film crew realized a playful film full of crazy charm and self-irony. Nevertheless, the film is too long for this plot.

Živković: A very pathetical film with acting and locations that weren't thought through and it lasts too long. But it's not as bad as it seems because this film's authors dared to deal with a very demanding topic, which even the professionals would run away from. The authors just took the wrong approach.

13. REVIJA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Nadrealna komplikacija vjerojatno svih poznatih bajki veselo je "mišljenje" tјa tema tek donekle opravdava brojne nelogičnosti koje se prečesto pojavljuju u ovom filmu. Beskrupulozno izmjene dnevnih kadrova s noćima unutar scene i slične primjere opstrukcije kontinuiteta filmske priče još bih i mogao prihvati kao trash poetiku, no povremeno nepoštivanje pravila filmske rampi i sličnih osnova filmskog jezika ostavlja utisak autorske nemušnosti ili, što je vjerojatnije, nemara. Ipak, na kraju krajeva, autorima valja odati priznanje za ambicioznost.

Picula: Noći i dan, stvarnost i mašta, poznato i nepoznato, kontrasti su ove metabajki čiji je cilj "postavljanje priča na njihovo mjesto". Autorima ambicija i filmskog entuzijazma očito ne nedostaje, no trebali su biti sadržajno kompaktnej i izražajno uredniji. Ovakoj je završni rezultat niz veoma dobrih ideja i scenskih rješenja između kojih nema prave poveznice. No mladim se filmsmašima mora priznat talent, upornost i organizacija produkcije.

Živković: Ambiciozan potvrat kojemu autori ipak nisu bili dorasli. Imam dojam da se brzopleti i bez razmišljanja uložio u film, a onda je ekipu snalo brdo prepukao kašto su scenarij, skript, lokacija itd. Očito nisu bili dorasli rješavanju tih problema na samom snimanju.

Šamanović: This surreal compilation of, quite possibly, all the known fairytales is a cheerful mixture, the topic of which only to a certain extent justifies the numerous illogical things that surface once too many times in this film. I could accept the non-scrupulous exchange of shots of day and those of night within the same setting, and similar examples of obstruction of the continuum of the film's story, and attribute them to the "trash" poetics, but the fact that the rules of the film ramp and similar basics of filmmaking are occasionally ignored gives the impression of authors' incompetence or, more likely, their nonchalance. Still, in the end, we should give the authors credit for their ambition.

Picula: Night and day, reality and fantasy, the real and the unreal. These are the contrasts of this meta-fairytales whose goal is putting 'stories back where they belong'. The authors don't lack in ambition and enthusiasm but they should have a more compact content and be expressively neater. That way the final result is an array of very good ideas and scene solutions, which are not connected properly. But I have to recognize the talent, persistence and production organization of the young filmmakers.

Živković: An ambitious project but the authors were out of their depth in this case. I have the impression that they rushed into making of this film and then the team was struck by a lot of obstacles like screenplay, script, locations etc. and they couldn't handle them while shooting.

Šamanović: Film dobre atmosfere izvedene kontroliranjem dramaturške dinamike. Solidna tehnička izvedba, no pomalo nejasan u zauzimanju stava spram lika.

Picula: Evo još jednog snažnog lika na ovogodišnjoj Reviji. Njegova dojmljiva profilacija riječu, slikom i zvukom generira pravu tenziju i nelagodu. Izvedbeno vrlo kompetentno, iako se ponešto rafiniranijim pristupom ne bi ništa izgubilo na stvaranju ozračja napetosti i predestiniranosti.

Živković: Zanimljiv scenarij, zrelo montiran i režiran. Najveći problem je odnos šumova i glazbe. Ubuduće prilikom montaže obavezno kontrolirati zvuk na kvalitetnim slušalicama i pratiti graf na audio mikseru.

Šamanović: A film of a good atmosphere created by controlling the drama dynamism. Substantial technical realization, but a bit unclear when it comes to taking a stand towards the character.

Picula: Here's another strong character on this year's Festival. His impressive definition generates true tension and uneasiness in word, image and sound. Performance is very adequate, although nothing would be lost in creation of tension and predetermination if the authors used a bit more refined approach.

Živković: An interesting screenplay, maturely edited and directed. The biggest problem is the sound-music relationship. Henceforth, while editing, it is inevitable to control the sound using (quality) headphones and follow the graph on Audio Mixer.

Šamanović: Scenariistički predložak za ovaj film nije nimalo loš dok se autor ne spotakne o nekoliko kliseja. Često se događaju pogreške i u osnovama filmske režije, a najslabija karika ovog filma jest gluma. Unatoč tome, uz impresivan producijski entuzijazam, ovog autora izdvaja nedvojbeno podrška prijatelja koje je okupio u radu na filmu. Bez obzira na sve, drama je pitka i odgleda se u dahu.

Picula: Autor u prvom redu treba čestitati na daru uspješnog producenta, što je vidljivo iz svake scene, baš kao i na ponekoj snimateljskoj i montažnoj bravuri. Kada bi to popratili odgovarajući scenariistički i režijski domet, sve bi bilo na mjestu. Ovakvo treba vježbati na kraćim radovima jer volje i ljubavi prema filmu ne nedostaje.

Živković: Prateći radove ovog autora otprije, uočavam napredak u promišljanju scenarija i filma. Možda bi bilo dobro da se autor odluči gdje bi radio bio, iza ili ispred kamere, jer sve odjednom ne može genijalno odraditi. Navijam da se autor odredi za rad iza kamere, da budem precizniji za režiju. Odabir nekih novih lokacija i glumaca u budućim djelima ne bi bio na odmet.

Šamanović: The script template for this film is not bad at all but the author slips on a few clichés. There are also a number of mistakes in basics of film directing and the weakest part of the film is the acting. In spite of all that, what distinguishes this author from the rest is the support from his friends who worked on the film and very impressive production enthusiasm. So, the drama is easy to watch.

Picula: I want to congratulate the author on successful producer's work, which can be seen in every scene, as well as on a few camera and editing stunts. If it only were followed by respectful screenplay and editing, everything would sit on its place. Practise on shorter pieces, because you don't lack interest or will for film-making.

Živković: Knowing this author's previous work, I can see the progress in screenplay writing and film-making. The author should decide whether he/she wants to be in front of or behind the camera because there is no way he/she can do both flawlessly. I recommend that the author stays behind the camera, or precisely said, to work on editing. The author should also choose new actors and locations in future films.

Šamanović: U ovom su filmu nagurani svi problemi ovog svijeta... Nju tuče dečko, stari joj cuga i tuče staru koja šuti, pa mala ode od doma. On je njen frend koji je peder, pa ga starci kad to skuže izbače iz kuće, pa on ode k njemu. Cijelo vrijeme sam se pitao tko je od njih dvoje bombaš samoubojica jer je jedino to nije pojavilo u filmu. Koncentrijate se na jednu temu i obradite je na jednostavan način. Tako ćete stvoriti puno bolji film.

Picula: Potencijalno najintrigantnije tema na ovogodišnjoj Reviji maltretiranje u vezi, alkoholizam u obitelji, otkrivanje homoseksualnosti, društveno licemjerje i izostanak roditeljske podrške samo su dotaknute. Pritom se verbalnim vulgarnostima pokušava potencirati realizam zbijanja, ali bez čvrstog zapleta i uvjerljivje glume nije se moglo dalje od početne intrige i završne tragedije. Ipak, čestitke na trudu i društvenoj osjetljivosti.

Živković: Kod velikih tema potrebno je imati veliku iskustvo s malim temama. Najveća manja je što su si autori zadali veliki zaloga kojem nisu dorasli, ali su ga hrabro i do kraja odradili. Šteta što je ovde bilo više velikih tema u jednoj, u suprotnom bi sigurno konačan rezultat bio puno bolji. Ubuduće pronaći bolje i uvjerljivije glumce.

Šamanović: All the world problems are put into this film... Her boyfriend beats her, her father is an alcoholic who beats his wife but she does not want to tell a soul and the girl runs away from home. She has a gay friend; his parents find out about it and kick him out from home so he goes to live with her. I wondered all the time which of the two is the suicide bomber but that part does not come in the film. Concentrate on one topic and keep it simple and by doing that, you will be able to make a better film.

Picula: Potentially the most intriguing topic, or better said, topics of this year's Festival harassment in a relationship, alcoholism in families, homosexuals coming out, social hypocrisy and absence of parental support have remained superficial. The authors tried to emphasize the reality of things by using verbal vulgarity, but without better plot and more convincing acting, they couldn't pass by the initial intrigue and final tragedy. Nevertheless, congratulations for trying hard and socially sensitive topic.

Živković: When dealing with big topics you need to have experience with the small ones. The biggest flaw here is that authors took a bite that they couldn't swallow but they finalized it with courage. Pity that there were a few big topics combined into one, in contrary the result would have been a lot better. Find better and more convincing actors in the future.

Šamanović: Jednostavnom formom, temeljenom dobrom dijelom na fotografijama iz obiteljskog albuma, autor istražuje standardnu adolescentsku temu o smislu života. Dobar je ovo primjer kako se patetična tema ne mora nužno patetično interpretirati.

Picula: Kada je redatelj filma "Memento" Christopher Nolen bio mlad, zasigurno je smisljao ili snimao filmove poput ovog. Dojmljiva naracija unaprijed i unazad uz izvrsno izabranu glazbenu kulisu i korištenje fotografija stvara čudnu mješavinu osjećaja beznađa, melankolije i preprištenosti sudbini. Trpk i uvjerljivo.

Živković: Jedini autoportretni film održan na možda nekonvencionalan način, ali ne i preinovativan. Prednost mu je što ne odire pretencioznoću i samohvalom.

Šamanović: The author explores the standard adolescent topic of the meaning of life by using a simple form based mostly on family album photos. This is a good example of proving that a pathetic topic does not have to interpret in a pathetic way.

Picula: When Memento film director Christopher Nolen was young, he surely wrote or made films like this one. Impressive narration with flashbacks and flashforwards, together with a fantastic music choice and the use of photographs creates a strange mix of feelings like hoplessness, melancholy and giving up. Astringent and convincing.

Živković: The only self-portrait film done unconventionally but not too innovatively. Its advantage is that it is not too pretentious and self-boasting.

Šamanović: Sjajna zabava rođenih komičara. Čini se da "Semicdeponentima" iz Zaprešića televizijska forma dobro pristaje jer, moglo bi se reći, postaju tradicionalni revijski program. Možda bi im trebalo ponuditi stalni angažman na budućim revijama, ako treba i izvan konkurenčije.

Picula: Tako mladi, a tako ironični, i još k tome filmski suvereni kada je riječ o parodiranju današnjih televizijskih sadržaja. Gotovo požalite što neka od domaćih televizijskih postaja nema ovakvu središnju informativnu emisiju. Visoka gledanost bila bi zajamčena. Optimalan spoj predprodukциje, produkcije i postprodukciјe. Mali svijet za sebe.

Živković: Ovo je neka kombinacija TV-reportaže i igranog filma jer riječ je o igranom TV-gegu. Da ekipa iz Zaprešića ima smisla za humor, dokazali su nebrojeno puta, ali očekivao sam da će se od prošlogodišnjih kratkih geg filmova ovog tipa sada ipak dogurati do fenomenalne komedije pravog igranofilmskog tipa.

Šamanović: Great fun of born comedians. It seems that the TV form suits well the 'semi deponents' from Zaprešić because they are becoming a part of the traditional festival program. Maybe it would be a good idea to make them regulars in the future programs. Unopposed if necessary.

Picula: So young and so ironic. And moreover independent when it comes to parodying contemporary television contents. You almost regret that some of the domestic television stations do not have a central news programme like this. Viewer ratings would rocket. An optimal clash of preproduction, production and postproduction. A little world on its own.

Živković: This is a combination of a TV report and a fiction film...since it is a TV fiction gag. The team from Zaprešić has proven their good sense of humour innumerable times, but when compared to last year's short film gags of the similar type, I expected that this year they would reach a new level of phenomenal fiction comedy.

Šamanović: Izuzetan film! Posebna pohvala za fotografiju. Hrabo i beskompromisno. Da je samo zvuk nešto jasnije snimljen, "delirij" bi bio u cijelosti "pozitivan".

Picula: Sjajna igra svjetla i tame uz "drhtavu" kamere pružaju prikaz dosad nevidenog Dubrovnika, mladenački drskog i vizualno još neistraženog. Još da sve to prati urednja naracija, ovaku vrstu delirija trebalo bi preporučiti svima koji se odluče baviti filmskim izražavanjem, barem u svojim počecima.

Živković: Dokumentarno-igrani film koji je kreativno i zrelo promišljen. Ipak me malo smeta niska kvaliteta slike i zvuka, pretpostavljam da je riječ o DVD kompresiji te da će original na projekciji biti znatno bolji.

Šamanović: An extraordinary film! Compliments for the photography. Brave and uncompromising. If the sound was a bit more clear, "delirium" would be completely "positive".

Picula: Amazing play of light and dark with an unsteady camera provide an overview of Dubrovnik yet unseen youthfully insolent and visually unexplored. If it was followed by a neater narration, this kind of delirium should be recommended to all those people who decide to make films. At least in their beginnings.

Živković: Documentary-fiction film. Very creative and maturely thought-trough, not just this one, but film in general. Yet, what bothers me is the debased image and sound quality. I assume we should blame the DVD compression and that the film will be better when projected on screen.

Šamanović: Najveća vrijednost ovog filma je uspješno stvoren ugodaj usamljenosti i nelagode nužan za stvaranje dobrog horora. Glumci su se odvago upustili u ovaj nezahvalan žanr i iznijeli film do kraja.

Picula: Iz nekog razloga filmovi strave u Hrvatskoj autorski su posve zapostavljeni žanr, iako u pravilu imaju brojnu i vjernu publiku. Domaća inačica zapleta "Projekt: Vještice iz Blaire'a" pogda bit horora: rastuću napetost i ozraće jeze. Eto, i naoko pitomi pejzaži u kontinentalnoj Hrvatskoj mogu biti izvrsono mjesto zbivanja tinejdžerskih horora. Uzbudljivo i kompetentno.

Živković: Većina se ljudi boji mraka pa je šteta što jedan horor nema vrijeme radnje upravo u to vrijeme, vrijeme noći, jer bi tada definitivno bio puno strašniji. U svakom slučaju - za svaku povalu.

Šamanović: The greatest value of this film is the successfully created atmosphere of loneliness and uneasiness that is necessary for the creation of a good horror film. The actors courageously indulged into this complicated genre and managed to carry it out till the end.

Picula: For some reason horror films are a completely neglected genre in Croatia although they have a numerous and faithful audience. Domestic version of Blair Witch Project guesses the essence of a horror: the growing tension and horror environment. And so, apparently tame landscapes of continental Croatia can become an excellent venue of teenage horror films. Exciting and competent.

Živković: Most of the people are afraid of dark so it's a pity that this film doesn't take place exactly then, during the night, because that would make it a lot scarier. In any case, it's worth the praise.

Šamanović: Problem s filmovima koji prepričavaju neki vic je u tome što je dobar dio publike vic već čuo. Drugi je problem to što je puno već broj ljudi koji dobro znaju vic prepričati od onih koji bi ga znali dobro ekranizirati.

Picula: "Dobre djevojke idu u raj baš sve; loše djevojke idu kod zaželes..." Refren starog hita Novih fosili (i ne samo njih) zaživio je u dopadljivom filmu-dosjetku koji je u konačnici trebao biti kraći, dinamičniji i efektnijim obratom.

Živković: Vic kao podloga za filmski scenarij nije uvijek dobro rješenje, ali u nedostatku originalnosti može poslužiti. Ovdje se, osim što je riječ o vic formi, suprotstavljaju dva režijska pristupa: scene Raja, koje su mirno i staloženo rezirane, i dio s Paklom gdje je svu "podiviljalo" osim (nažlost) montaže. Ako se ubuduće bude pribjegavalo formi vica, sve mora biti odmjereno - gluma, režija, a posebice montaža koja bi trebala imati osjećaj za "tajming". Naime, ovaj "vic" jednostavno traje predugo i na kraju nije smješan.

Šamanović: The problem with films that try to retell a joke is in the fact that a great number of people in the audience knows the joke already. The second problem is that the number of people who can retell the joke well is greater than the number of people who can put it on a screen.

Picula: "Good girls go to heaven; bad girls go wherever they want..." Chorus of a very old song performed by the Croatian band Novi Fosili came into life in an attractive film-joke which should have been shorter, more dynamic and with a more effective twist.

Živković: The joke as a base for a screenplay is not always a good solution but it can serve its purpose in the lack of originality. There are, apart from the joke form, two opposing directorial approaches: the scenes of Heaven are directed steadily and in the part in Hell everything unfortunately goes 'wild' apart from the editing. Henceforth, if you want to use the joke form, everything has to be balanced; acting, directing and especially editing, which should have the sense of timing because this 'joke' just lasts too long and is not funny in the end.

Šamanović: Edukativni film o pružanju prve pomoći pri adolescentskoj alkoholnoj komi. Pohvalno je što srednjoškolci brinu o svojim promiskuitetnim kolegama, no film previše podsjeća na vintage autorski pristup u filmovima Škole narodnog zdravlja s početka prošlog stoljeća. Danas je to malo deplasirano.

Picula: Bolje biti pijan nego glup, kažu nam (anti)junaci ovog filma. Ipak je najbolje biti kreativan i kada je riječ o čuvanju svog zdravlja i kada je riječ o snimanju filma. Pri prvom se treba oduprijeti svim mogućim ovisnostima, a pri drugom odlučiti snima li se namjenski ili igrani film. Ova bi tema puno bolje "legla" adresatnoj publici da su autori realizirali čistu igranu formu.

Živković: Edukativni video o pružanju prve pomoći. Malo zastarjela, ali prokušana forma koja daje rezultate.

Šamanović: Educational film about first aid in cases of adolescent alcohol induced coma. Although it is commendable that the high school students worry about their promiscuous colleagues, this film reminds of a vintage approach of the film authors of the Public Health School from the beginning of the 20th century. Today this is a bit inappropriate.

Picula: It's better to be drunk than stupid, say the (anti)heroes of this film. Nevertheless, it is best to be creative when it comes to taking care of your health and shooting a film. In the first case, you should fight all types of addiction and in the second decide whether are you shooting a commercial or a fiction film. This topic would be more welcomed by the addressed audience if the authors used plain fiction form.

Živković: An educative video about giving first aid. A bit old-fashioned but verified form that provides good results.

Šamanović: A evo nam i bombaša samoubojice... Karlovčani su opsjednuti propucavanjem učeničkih, a posebice profesorskih glava. Krv na sve strane bi ipak trebala biti scenaristički utemeljena. Unesite u vaše filmove malo razloga za njihovo snimanje! Ovako je malo zbumujuće.

Picula: Kada bi netko sa strane pogledao većinu ovogodišnjih filmova iz Karlovca, stekao bi dojam da je grad što se tiče nasilja jedno od najopasnijih mjesto na svijetu, uz bok pojedinim dijelovima Bliskog istoka. Kada njegovi mladi stanovnici toliko posežu za nasiljem na filmu, očito imaju razloga za to. Nažalost, ovaj film ima osnovni problem što je razlog zbivanjima u njemu teško svinilo objasniti. Snimanje na temelju predrasuda ni kod iksusnih autora ne izgleda dobro.

Živković: -

Šamanović: And here comes the suicide bomber... The authors from Karlovac are obsessed with shooting students, and especially teachers, in their heads. The blood all over the place should after all be based on the screenplay. Come on people, invent a reason why a film should be shot before shooting it actually. This makes it a bit confusing.

Picula: When someone from abroad would see the majority of this year's films from Karlovac, he/she would get the impression that it's the most dangerous place in the world when it comes to violence. Along with some specific parts of the Middle East. When the young population reaches so much for violence in films, they obviously have a good reason for it. Unfortunately, this film's basic problem is that it's difficult to explain what is going on in it. Shooting based on prejudice doesn't turn out well for anybody, even the professional film-makers.

Šamanović: Nije mi jasno zašto su se autori ovog filma koji je imao šansu biti odličnim dokumentarcem odlučili za poigravanje s igranofilmskim sarkazmom! Najveći problem je u tome što je taj i grani dio tehnički problematičan do te mjeru da su povremeno dijelovi dijaloga u cjelosti nerazumljivi. Spram dramatičnih dokumentarnih cjelina, i grani podsmijeh postaje gorak.

Picula: U najdulji film na Reviji uloženo je jako puno emocija, želja, istraživanja. Zato su se autori trebali odlučiti za dokumentarni film u kojem su i bez i grani prizora mogli prikazati dramatičnost zbivanja o kojima govore. Ili su pak otpočetka mogli dramatizirati stvarne događaje zadržavajući dojmljiv sarkastični pristup. Odluka je uvijek pola posla.

Zivković: Film koji je potrebljeno pogledati. Najveća manja je neobjektivnost i patetičnost autora, kao i pregršt tehničkih mana. Film s nadasve velikim potencijalom.

Šamanović: I don't understand why the authors decided to play with fiction film sarcasm when the film had the chance to be an excellent documentary. The biggest problem is that the fiction part is quite problematic in the technical way and parts of whole dialogues are completely unclear. The fictional ridicule becomes bitter when compared to the dramatical documentary parts.

Picula: A lot was invested in the longest film on the Festival emotions, wishes, and research. That's why the authors should have made a documentary film where they could show the drama of the event they are describing without fiction scenes. Or they could have dramatized the real events from the start by keeping the impressive sarcastical approach. Decision is always half the work.

Zivković: Everyone should watch this film. Its biggest flaws are lack of objectiveness and author's paethetics, as well as a handful of technical faults. Above all, it has a huge potential.

Picula: Turbočna tema, veoma dobra kamera i kompozicija kada te odgovarajuće korištenje glazbe, čine ovu filmsku priču o mračnoj strani maloljetničkih veza znatno "odraslijom" no što se to može naslutiti na temelju godina njezinih autora. Iako je uvijek nelagodno gledati nasilje nad maloljetnicima, ovdje je to tematski opravданo i scenski pedantno.

Zivković: Fino strukturiran i građen film. Tipična srednjoškolska tema kojoj se pristupilo veoma zrelo i profesionalno.

Šamanović: Up-to-date screenplay, quality filming, smart performance, dramatically well-balanced, with excellent editing and thoughtful directing. A terrific film.

Picula: A dreary topic, very good camera and frame composition and appropriate music usage make this film about the dark side of juvenile relationships considerably more 'grown-up' than we can tell by the author's age. Although it is always unpleasant to watch juvenile violence, here it is thematically justified and dramatically precise.

Zivković: Fine structure and construction. A typical high-school topic with a very mature and professional approach.

13. REVIJA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Ovaj omnibus sastavljen od dvije priče koju povezuje treća krasa izrazita dobrohotnost i nekakva ugodno nevinova vjera u ljudе i dobru kob. Ugodan za gledanje, na kraju nas nagradi tako dobrodošlim, premdа pomalo bedastim osmijehom kojeg postanemo svjesni tek nakon odjavne špice. Iz čitavog mora tehnički nesavršenih elemenata promišljenošću se svakako izdvaja odabir objektiva kojima su snimljeni pojedini filmski planovi.

Picula: Strukturom veoma zanimljiv film s pozadinskom naracijom i efektom uporabom glazbe koji lako dopire do publike. Snimateljski je rad također iznadprosječan, glumački nastupi odmjereni, a ritam na početku dobro uspostavljen. Da je film prema završnici sažetiji i s manje praznog hoda, sve bi bilo još bolje i povezanije. U svakom slučaju ambiciozno, ali ne pretenciozno.

Živković: Razraditi scenarij se katkada isplati pa konačan rezultat može biti puno bolji od očekivanog, bez obzira na tehničke nedostatke i znanje u rješavanju istih.

Šamanović: This composite film made out of two stories linked by the third one is characterized by amazing benevolence and a certain agreeably innocent trust in people and good fortune. Pleasantly watchable, in the end rewards us with a welcome, although somewhat silly smile that we are not aware of before the sign-off. From the bunch of technically imperfect elements we must turn the attention to well-chosen lenses used for taking specific shots throughout the film.

Picula: Structurally very interesting film with background narration and effective use of music reaches the audience easily. Camera work is also above the average, acting is well balanced, and the rhythm set up well in the beginning. If the film were just a bit shorter and without 'idle motion', everything would be better and more linked. Anyhow, ambitious but not pretentious.

Živković: To elaborate the screenplay is worth from time to time and the final result can turn out a lot better than expected no matter the technical flaws and knowledge in solving them.

Šamanović: U ovom filmu nije baš potpuno jasno što se doista zbiva, a što su prividjenja glavnog junaka. Greška se dogodila poprilično rano, još negdje tijekom pisanja scenarija. Dok pišete film, probajte se postaviti u ulogu gledatelja i zamisliti njegovu projekciju u budućnosti. To može pomoći...

Picula: Najbolji od ovogodišnjih karlovačkih camp krvolijtanja izdvaja se solidnim poigravanjem stvarnošću i uobrazljom, ali mu i dalje nedostaje razlog zašto sve završi u brutalnom prizoru. Računalno generirana krv bez podloge u priči izaziva samo odbojnost.

Živković: -

Šamanović: It is quite unclear what is really going on in this film and what are main hero's hallucinations. The mistake occurred quite early, during screenplay writing. When writing a film, try to put yourselves into the role of the viewer and imagine his/her projection in the future. That could help.

Picula: The best of this year's camp bleeding from Karlovac, it outshines the rest by substantial play with reality and fiction, but it misses the reason why everything ends in a brutal sight. Computer-generated blood without a background is repelling.

Šamanović: Mladić posjećuje psihijatra lažući mu pritom o svom psihičkom stanju, navodno poboljšanom nakon liječenja. Premda su šale na račun odnosa liječnika i pacijenta pomalo izlizane, režija simpatično slampava, a trajanje nešto dulje od potrebnog, ovaj je film, unatoč svojoj nesavršenosti, dopadljiv.

Picula: Nasilje na filmu očito je u trendu i među mladim filmašima u Hrvatskoj. Potencijalno intrigantna tema o (ne)uspješnom liječenju kod psihijatra propustila je biti struktorno i sadržajno čvršća, iako završni klimaks dijelom nadoknade propušteno. Ubuduće pripaziti i na snimanje zvuka.

Živković: Iako "Savršeno" na kraju ipak nije savršeno, ono što je za povuhu je gluma pacijenta. Kritiku upućujem redatelju i montažera zbog nepotrebno predugog filma...Možda sljedeći film bude savršen.

Šamanović: A young man visits a psychiatrist and lies about his mental state, which allegedly improved after the treatment. Although the jokes about the doctor-patient relationship are a little old, the directing scrappy and the film duration a bit too long, this film is lovable in spite of its imperfections.

Picula: Violence on screen has obviously become a trend among young Croatian filmmakers. A potentially intriguing topic of an (un)successful psychiatrist treatment failed to be more structurally and substantially coherent although the final climax partially makes up for that. Henceforth be more careful with the sound recording.

Živković: Although 'Perfect' is not so perfect in the end, acting of the patient is praiseworthy. Criticism to the director and the editor for unnecessary film duration... Maybe the next film will be perfect.

Šamanović: Još jedan kratki geg. Simpatično, ali ništa više od toga.

Picula: I redatelj "Šestog čula" M. Night Shyamalan ne bi se postidio završnog obrata u ovom filmu, pri čemu su njegovi autori puno duhovitiji i, što je najvažnije, posve svjesni prave minutaže i dinamike u kojoj ovakav geg savršeno funkcioniра. Bravo!

Živković: U ovoj minuti sam se najviše dosada razveselio i najmanje tri puta iznenadio. Odličan geg film višestrukih obrata. Dobar "tajming", iako ne treba robovati toj jednoj minuti.

Šamanović: Another short gag. Cute, but nothing else.

Picula: The Sixth Sense director M. Night Shyamalan would not be ashamed of such a final twist whereat these authors are much funnier and, what is most important, aware of the right duration and dynamics in which this gag perfectly functions. Great work.

Živković: During this minute I was truly cheered up and was surprised at least three times. A great gag with multiple twists. Good timing, although it is not necessary to bond yourself strictly to one-minute duration.

Šamanović: Još jedno predvidivo i ponešto nemušto djelce iz zaprešičke tvornice skečeva. Blistava djela im baš i nisu konstanta.

Picula: Scenografija je na mjestu, osnovna zamisao takoder, a i glumci daju sve od sebe. Međutim nategnuta priča i oscilacije u ritmu nepotrebno dekoncentriraju praćenje filma. Kada je riječ o skeču, on mora biti kratak, jasan i uzlažnog smjera.

Živković: Ovdje imam jednu zamjerku. Iako je forma ovog dvojca već tradicionalna, nekako mi se čini da nije dobro ne dati filmu ime koje bi se moglo pročitati za vrijeme njegova trajanja, a ne s prijavnicе za festival. Momci, dajte imena svojim radovima!

Šamanović: Another predictable and inarticulated work from Zaprešić sketch factory. Brilliant works are not too constant there.

Picula: Scenography is all right, the basic idea as well and the actors are giving their best. However, the stretched story and rhythm variations unnecessarily distract the film watching. When it comes to sketches, they have to be short, clear and ascendant.

Živković: I have one reproach here. Although the form is traditionally the same when it comes to this duet, I cannot help but noticing that a film should have a title which the audience can read while watching it and not from the festival application form. Guys, give titles to your pieces!

Šamanović: Ova skupina prokušanih vicmahera bolje funkcioniра u crnouhumornom okružju. Osjeti se tu, naravno, dobit kreativnog duha Montyja Pythona, no tko bi im to uopće zamjerio.

Picula: Efektni film apsurdna na temu hiperprodukcije reality showova najvećim dijelom drži pravac između satire i poznavanja formata koji se parodiira. Nasilje na filmu ovakvog tipa uvijek treba prožeti apelom na humor. Pomalo predvidljivo, ali u cjelini više od dobre dosjetke.

Živković: Hommage Monty Pythonovcima i njihovom Letećem cirkusu ovdje je najnaglašeniji. Možda da se na tom tragu izgradi vlastiti sustav humora.

Šamanović: This group of proven joke experts functions better in black humor environment. You can of course sense the good and creative Monty Python spirit, but nobody should reproach them for it.

Picula: An effective film of the absurd about reality shows hyperproduction mostly flows between satire and the format it parodies. Violence in such a film should be intertwined with humour appeal. A bit predictable, but overall more than just a good joke.

Živković: Hommage to Monty Python and their flying circus is the most stressed in this film. Maybe the authors could base their own humour system on it.

13. REVIJA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Kratak i jasan geg o snu. Toliko je gegova snimljeno o snu. I sví su nekako slični. Ili je to možda jedan film koji sam gledao bezbroj puta. Ili sam sanjao da sam gledao...

Picula: Ne poželi curu kolege svog. To doduše ne piše u Bibliji, ali su to ovdje kratko i jasno zapisali autori filma koji je u konačnici trebao biti intoniran crnomuhorno da bi postigao pravi učinak.

Živković: Simpatičan film jasnog cilja.

Šamanović: A short and a clear gag. About a dream. So many gags were shot about it. And all look alike. Or is it maybe the same film I watched over and over again? Or maybe I dreamt about watching it...

Picula: You shall not covet your colleague's girlfriend. However, that doesn't stand in the Bible, but the authors of this film made it clear in a clear and laconic way. But the film should have been intonated black-humourously in order to achieve the right effect.

Živković: A likable film with a clear goal.

Šamanović: Priča je ovo o borbi dobra i zla ispričana kroz partiju šaha. Montažna razigranost najveća je vrijednost ovog filma kojeg je možda točnije nazvati glazbenim spotom.

Picula: Efektno snimljen i raskadrian film plijeni svojom likovnošću i metaforikom o partiji šaha. Pitanje je pak je li riječ o igranom ili eksperimentalnom filmu pri čemu i ovdje, što se tiče dužine trajanja, vrijeđi pravilo „manje je više“.

Živković: Ovaj film ima veliki potencijal za animiranu formu. Imam dojam da se ovoj igrano-spotovskoj formi pribjeglo čisto zbog manjka znanja o animaciji koja nije nimalo jednostavna. Nadam se da ćemo u skoroj budućnosti gledati remake ovog uratka u animiranoj verziji.

Šamanović: This is a story about the fight between good and evil told through a chess game. The playfulness of the editing is the biggest value of this film, although it would be better to call it a music video.

Picula: Efficiently shot and framed film attracts with its visuality and metaphor about a chess game. Is this a fiction or experimental film remains a question and when it comes to the length of the film, the rule 'less is more' should be applied.

Živković: This film has great potential for animated form. I believe the authors used this fiction-clip form just because of their lack of knowledge in animation (which is not simple at all). I hope to see the remake of this film in animated form in the near future.

Šamanović: Pomalo predug skeč koji povremeno krase zanimljivi trenuci. Rijetka montažna razmjena kadrova nepotrebno je razvukla priču.

Picula: Duhoviti dijalazi ostali su usamljeni među neopravданo razvučenom pričom i statičnom slikom koja tek pred kraj hvata zamah. Kratko je često slatko.

Živković: S obzirom da je riječ o istom timu koji je radio i na KRC-TV-u, moj je dojam ostao nepromijenjen - radi o istom stilu humora i istoj video formi. U budućnosti se nadam pravom filmskom uratku u kojem ćemo moći vidjeti svo znanje i umijeće ovog kreativnog tima.

Šamanović: A bit too long sketch with some interesting moments. Rare editing shot exchange unnecessarily outstretched the story.

Picula: Funny dialogues were left in solitude among the unjustifiedly long story and static image which gets into its stride towards the end. Short is often sweet.

Živković: Since this film was made by the same team as the previous one (KRC-TV), my opinion did not change because it's the same humour and same video form. In the future, I hope to see a real film piece, which will show all the knowledge and skills of this creative team.

Šamanović: Nejasan u ideji, a povremena izmjena filmskih pravaca tu nejasnoću dodatno stimulira. Premda kratak, stvara veliku zbrku.

Picula: Spomenuto pravilo "manje je više" nije univerzalno. To dokazuje ovaj kratki film koji je jednostavno prekratak u razvijanju ideje koja je ostala poznata samo autorima.

Živković: Kratko, nejasno, bez konkretne ideje. Staviti hrpu nepotrebnih šumova na mesta u filmu na kojima ih se obično ne bi očekivalo ne čini to djelo filmom nego video vježbom. Još vježbat!

Šamanović: The idea is unclear and the occasional change of film directions stimulates it even more. Although short, creates a big confusion.

Picula: The forementioned rule 'less is more' is not universal and this film proves it because it is just too short and it cannot develop the idea, which stayed a mystery to everyone but the authors.

Živković: Short, unclear and without a specific idea. To put a bunch of unnecessary sounds to places where one usually wouldn't expect them doesn't make this piece a film but a video practice. Practise more!

Šamanović: Komedija o Miljenku, urbanom osvetniku, koji u pokušaju istjerivanja pravde krši zakon... Blesavo smiješna parodija cijelog jednog filmskog podžanra. Neopterećeno, inventivno i smješno. Sasvim dovoljna količina kvalitativnih komponenti za dobar film.

Picula: Zlo je dobro! Filmski, naravno. Miljenko je jedan od najbolje osmišljenih filmskih junaka na ovogodišnjoj Reviji, dok autori filma pokazuju da znaju puno: od poznavanja estetike i tematike B filmova, preko pravog izbora elemenata parodije, do realizacije duhovite i izvedbeno atraktivne filmske priče.

Živković: Ovo je toliko blesavo da bi moglo biti genijalno, no ja tu genijalnost još ne vidim. Vidim da se ekipa filma jako dobro zabavila i da nisu bili opterećeni ni sa čim. Jednostavno su napravili ono što su zamislili, a to nije nimalo jednostavno.

Šamanović: Comedy about Miljenko, an urban avenger that breaks the law in the attempt to ensure justice... A silly and funny parody of an entire subgenre. Free of pressure, inventive and funny. Just the right amount of valuable components to make it a good film.

Picula: Evil is good! In a film, of course. Miljenko is one of the best thought out film heroes on this year's Festival, while the authors show they know a lot: from knowing good aesthetics and B films topics, to the right choice of parody elements and realization of a witty and attractive film story.

Živković: This is so 'crazy' that it could be brilliant. I don't see that brilliance yet, but I can see that the team had great fun while making the film and that they were not under any pressure. They just did what they wanted to do. And that is not easy at all.

Picula: This is what a film about supporters' passion commercial or not should look like. Briefly, fresh and surprising. It should have been shorter due to the central idea.

Šamanović: Ova parodija na filmske elemente sukoba uličnih bandi spoj je glazbenog spota i igranog filma. Cure su se očigledno tijekom snimanja dobro zabavljale što je rezultiralo ne tako tipično ženskim filmom.

Picula: Autorice su se očito nagledale spotova i spotova girl bandova te holivudskih filmova i serija za mlade, ali nisu podlegle idolatriji, već su realizirale koherentan i filmski nedvojbeno pismen rad.

Živković: Spoj "West side story" i "Groznice subotnje večeri". Kratko, jasno i bedasto smiješno.

13. REVIIA HRVATSKOG FILMSKOG I VIDEO STVARALAŠTVA MLADEŽI

Šamanović: Film o plesu, želji za ostvarenjem svog sna i istospolnoj ljubavi. Premda upravo zbog ovog posljednjeg segmenta progresivno intrigantan, neuvjerljiv je u izvedbi i posvemašnje zbrkan.

Picula: Pjesme Cyndi Lauper i zgodna igra središnjih protagonistica bez riječi potencijalno su se mogle spojiti u ritmičniji film, osobito jer govori o ljubavi i plesu. Cure, krenite na djelo!

Živković: Na kraju ovog filma nisam shvatio zašto je redatelj inzistirao na pantomima glumi koja je iznimno zahtjevna pa nije čudno što ove glumice nisu bile dorasle zadatku. Neki filmovi nemaju zvuka, vjerojatno zbog manjka tehničkog znanja ili same tehnike, drugi ga uskrćuju iz nepoznatih razloga.

Šamanović: A film about dancing, desire to make your dream come true and same-sex love. Although progressively intriguing, thanks to the last segment, it falls short in realization and is quite confused.

Picula: Cyndi Lauper's songs and interesting wordless game of the protagonists could have been combined into a more rhythmical film, especially because it is about love and dancing. Girls, do it!

Živković: In the end of the film I did not understand why the author insisted on mime acting, which is extremely demanding so it is not surprising that the actresses were out of their depth. Some films have no sound, probably for the lack of technical knowledge or equipment, others withhold it for some obscure reasons.

Šamanović: Istančan osjećaj za kompoziciju kadra i kolorit, no previše nepotrebnih pokreta kamere i zumova. Najveći problem ovog filma je zapanjujuća smotra montažnih spona, vjerojatno svih koji je autorica mogla pronaći u svom softveru. Ljepota filma se najčešće manifestira kroz jednostavnost izvedbe. Poštovanje ove ideje ovaj bi film učinilo još boljim.

Picula: Prekrasno snimljeni pejzaži, četveronožni istraživač i klasična glazba u dramatičnoj izvedbi Maksima Mrvica naoko su dobitna kombinacija. Međutim, izostanak fokusa i poveznice među nabrojanim elementima filma uz agresivne montažne postupke odveli su film u slijepu ulicu, unatoč neprjepornoj ljepoti slike.

Živković: Ovaj bi film disao puno bolje da nije napravljen homage svim transitionsima iz Adobe Premiere ili nekog sličnog računalnog programa za digitalnu montažu. Jednostavno ne vidim opravdanje za takav pristup u ovom filmu. Sve ostalo je za poхvalu.

Šamanović: Refinement for the composition of the shot and color but too many unnecessary movements of the camera and zooms. This film's biggest problem is the huge number of editing transitions. The author probably used all that she could find in her software. The beauty of the film is usually manifested through its simplicity. If this idea was followed through, this film would be even better.

Picula: Beautifully shot landscapes, a four-legged explorer and classical music dramatically performed by Maksim Mrvica are apparently a winning combination. However, the lack of focus and connections between the mentioned elements, alongside with aggressive editing, has brought the film to a dead end, in spite of unquestionable beauty of images.

Živković: This film would breathe a lot easier if it weren't made as an homage to all transitions from Adobe Premiere or some similar computer programs for digital editing. I just cannot see the justification for that approach in this film. Everything else is praiseworthy.

Šamanović: Nadrealističan film jasne forme. Dobar osjećaj za kompoziciju kadra, prepoznavanje detalja i ulogu zvuka u filmu. Promišljeno naglašavanje boja u svrhu isticanja različitosti između crno-bijele i kolor fotografije i dramaturških ugoda koje predstavljaju.

Picula: Jedan od snimateljski najboljih filmova na Reviji također puno duguje nadrealističkom konceptu i poigravanju s kontrastima. Izvrsna kompozicija kadrova, znalačko korištenje glazbe i zvukova te uvjerljiva minimalistička gluma vodeće su mu odlike. Prva asocijacija nakon ogledana ovakvog filma je umjetnički dar.

Živković: Jako dobro koncipiran film ekspresivnog ugoda koji ostavlja dojam promišljanja svakog detalja.

Šamanović: Surrealist film with a clear form. Good feeling for frame composition, details recognition and the sound role in the film. Thoughtful colour's emphasis for the purpose of pinpointing the difference between black-and-white and colour photography and the dramaturgic atmospheres they represent.

Picula: One of the best-shot films on the Festival owes a lot to the surrealist concept and contrast play. Excellent frame composition, professional use f sounds and music and convincing yet minimalist acting these are its main characteristics. My first thought after having seen the film was a gift of art.

Šamanović: Ovaj bi se film mogao zvati i "Dodata u Karlovac"... Simpatična video razglednica s ugodnim animiranim iznenadenjem negdje na sredini. Moj savjet autorima: pripazite da su vam vertikale doista vertikalne dok snimate. Stativi uglavnom imaju ugrađenu libelu. Vjerujte mi na riječ.

Picula: Ako voda život znači, onda grad na četiri rijeke obiluje životom i kreativnošću. To najbolje potvrđuju mladi karlovački filmaši koji su realizirali vizualno atraktivni i glazbeno razigran portret svoga grada. Poneka duhovitost i iznenadenje ne bi bili suvišni.

Živković: -

Šamanović: This film might be titled as 'Come to Karlovac'... A cute video postcard with a pleasant animated surprise in the middle. My advice to the authors: while shooting, watch out that the verticals are really vertical. Tripods mostly have a built-in spirit-level. Take my word for it.

Picula: If water means life, then a town on four rivers abounds in life and creativity. Proof for it are the young filmmakers from Karlovac who realized a visually attractive and musically playful portrait of their town. A few funny things and surprises wouldn't be redundant.

Šamanović: Premda pomalo klasično režiran, uz brojna pretapanja, zum il' dva i poneki trik, ovaj je spot vizualno atraktivn i čitak. Jedina zamjera je konstantna izmjena filmskih formata (4:3 i 16:9) jer odvlači pažnju od inače skladne filmske fotografije.

Picula: Vizualizirati glazbu znači pronaći u slici i zvuk i ritam jer viđeno itekako može pojačavati tonove i melodije. Upravo je to uspjelo autoru ovog poetičnog i opijajućeg filma u kojem su znalački složeni interjeri i eksterijeri te krupni i srednji planovi. Da je film i likovno ujednačeniji, kao što je to u odnosu glazbe i slike, dojam bi bio još bolji.

Živković: Ovdje je riječ o veoma zrelo sastavljenom i promišljanom video spotu. Vidljiv je trud oko odabira lokacija, glumaca i kostimografije. Montaža i režija su zadovoljavajuće, iako u budućnosti očekujem mnogo više od ove kreativne i talentirane ekipe.

Šamanović: Even though directed in a bit classical way, with many cross-fadings, a zoom or two and a few tricks, this video is visually attractive and neat. The only reproach is the constant transition of the film format (4:3 and 16:9), what distracts us from the usually balanced film photography.

Picula: To visualize music means to find sound and rhythm in an image. Because what we see can intensify tones and melodies. The author of this poetical and intoxicating film with professionally combined interiors and exteriors and close-ups managed to do exactly that. The final impression would be even better if the film were more equalized, like in the relationship between music and image.

Živković: Here we are talking about a very maturely combined and re-thought music video. We can see the effort made for selection of locations, actors and costumes. Editing and directing are satisfying although I expect a lot more from this creative and talented team.

Šamanović: Smjestivši glumačke interpretacije svih smrtnih grijeha u jednu prostoriju, autori grade zanimljivu podlogu za stvaranje filozofijskog scenskog ugoda. Kome je, uostalom, malo filozofiranja ikada naškodilo...

Picula: Izvrsni vizualno-sadržajni diptih djeluju kao diplomski rad na uglednim filmskim školama, pri čemu su glumačke izvedbe više nego dojmljive. Slojeviti off, efektna crno-bijela fotografija te bogati kadrovi usprkos ograničenom prostoru otkrivaju autorsku zrelost i promišljeni pristup. Ukratko, eksperiment je uspio!

Živković: Jedan od boljih filmova na Reviji. Točno se vidi da je autor razmišljao o svemu što mu je trebalo za realizaciju ovog filma. Možda najbolje odabrani glumci do sada.

Šamanović: The authors have created an interesting background for creation of a philosophical scenery atmosphere by putting all impersonations of deadly sins into one room. A little philosophy has never hurt anyone...

Picula: Excellent visual-content diptych looks like a graduation thesis on prominent film schools whereas the acting performance is more than impressive. The layered off, striking black-and-white photography and rich frames reveal author's maturity and thought-through approach in spite of limited space. Shortly, the experiment was successful.

Živković: One of the best films on the Festival. You can notice that the author thought about everything he needed for realization of the film. Maybe best chosen actors so far.

Šamanović: Premda je ideja jasna, a poruka nedvojbenja, izvedba nije trapava, što uvelike utječe na kvalitetu ovog spota. Glazbeni spotovi nude autorsku slobodu i ostavljaju prostor kreativnosti i inventivnosti. To u ovom radu nije iskorišteno. Druga značajna komponenta glazbenih spotova je visoka vizualna estetika. Kada ona nije sastavni dio spota, ne možemo ga nazvati uspјelim.

Picula: I u samo jednom prostoru moguće je snimiti atraktivan i dinamičan glazbeni spot. Potrebna je pak kritična količina ideja, kadrova i ritma među njima. Ovako "Soba za tugu" traje, a ne govori puno o onome što je htjela reći.

Živković: U ovakvom video spotu se ipak očekuje mnogo više ekspresivnosti s obzirom da se vjerojatno radi o homageu vlastitom glazbenom idolu. Kamera i montaža trebale su dati mnogo više.

Šamanović: Although the idea is clear and the message unambiguous, the final product is awkward and it affects the quality of the video. Music videos offer a lot of freedom for the author and leave space for creativity and innovativeness. That principle was not used in this video. The second important component of music videos is high visual aesthetics. If it is not a constituent part of the video, we cannot call it a complete success.

Picula: It is possible to shoot an attractive and dynamic music video in just one room or area. What it takes is a critical amount of ideas, frames and rhythm between them. Like this, 'Sorrow Room' lasts too long but doesn't say much about what it wanted to say.

Živković: In a homage video like this more expressiveness is expected considering the fact that this is probably the homage to a private music idol. The camera and the editing should have given a lot more.

Šamanović: Televizijsku reportažu o dijabetesu krase brojni svijetli trenuci. Velik je broj domišljatih rješenja kojima se razbijaju ozbiljan ton koji ova tematika zahtijeva. Autorice su pred objektivom opuštene i vesele, a nemirna kamera je u funkciji ležernosti. Malo kraćenja ne bi bilo na odmet, no sve u svemu zabavno i poučno.

Picula: To se zove filmska špica! Uvod u ovaj namjenski film o šećernoj bolesti uistinu djeluje svjetski, a ni nastavak nije razočaravajući. Puno informacija i dobre volje resi film koji kroz nastupe četiri glumice te anketu i edukativne priloge djeluje kao Škola narodnog zdravlja za 21. stoljeće. Ne bi bilo loše da je film kraći, što bi podrazumijevalo da je napravljena bolja selekcija informacija.

Živković: U početku me špica jako razveselila i puno občekivala. Iako ostatak nije na istoj razini, nije me razočarao - ipak je riječ o zanimljivom i poučnom filmu.

Šamanović: TV coverage about diabetes has many bright moments. There is a huge number of smart solutions which are used to shatter the serious tone needed for this topic. The authors are cheerful and relaxed in front of the camera, and the unsteady camera contributes to a relaxed atmosphere. It would be better if the film were a bit shorter but generally it is fun and instructive.

Picula: This is a real opening credit! The opening of this commercial film about diabetes really looks cosmopolitan and the rest isn't bad either. A lot of information and good will embellishes this film that, with the four actresses, the questionnaire and educative appendixes, looks like National Health School for the 21st century. It would be better if the film was shorter, which would mean better information selection.

Živković: The opening credits made me really happy and it was promising too. Although the rest of the film is not at the same level, it wasn't disappointing because it is afterall, an interesting and instructive film.

Šamanović: Hinduistička meditativnost često je nadahnula autorima koji djeluju u eksperimentalnom filmskom okruženju. Ovaj film je bogat sadržajem koji želi poticati opuštanje i meditaciju, pa te time autor u svojoj namjeri, vjerujem, uspio. Drugo je pitanje koliko je ova tema zanimljiva publići. No to je već individualna stvar i nije podložna kritici.

Picula: Oživljene fotografije priču mogu ispričati i kroz generiranje određenog ugodača koji nadahnjuje gledatelje da reinterpretiraju viđeno na svoj način. Ovaj sugestivno snimljeni film omogućuje upravo to, koketirajući pritom s logikom i estetikom nadrealizma. Zrelo i interesantno unatoč povremenoj težičnosti.

Živković: Zanimljiv film atmosfere. Nažalost, imam dojam da je atmosfera jedino što ima. Bez obzira na to, riječ je o vrijednom radu koji svakako vrijedi pogledati.

Šamanović: The experience of Hindu meditation is often times an inspiration for the authors of experimental films. This film is rich in incitements to relaxation and meditation, so there the author was successful in his intent. Whether the film is interesting for the audience as well is a different story. But here we are talking about individual differences, which are not subject to criticism.

Picula: Photographs 'brought to life' can tell a story also through generating a certain atmosphere which inspires the viewers to reinterpret what they have seen in their own way. This suggestively made film enables that and at the same time it flirts with logic and esthetics of surrealism. Mature and interesting in spite of occasional claims.

Živković: An interesting atmosphere film. Unfortunately it seems that the atmosphere is all it has. In spite of that it's a valuable film worth watching.

Šamanović: Solidna ideja čija je realizacija trebala biti nešto preciznija. Crno-bijela fotografija dala je kamenoj arhitekturi, koja je osnovni sadržaj svakog kadra, dodatnu vizualnu težinu i što je još važnije ujednačenost. Manji je problem u konstantnom laganom drhturenjem kamere koje nastaje pri snimanju. Ovakav film zahtjeva maksimalnu vizualnu čistoću pa se takvi mali gafovi, upravo zbog duljine kadra, pretvaraju u značajne pogreške.

Picula: Koraci u "toj divnoj splitskoj noći" vizualno su i tonski sjajan leitmotiv pri čemu autori igraju na sigurnu svedremensku ljepotu dalmatinske arhitekture. Šteta što nisu više eksperimentirali i u završnici se poslužili nekim od efektnijih iznenadenja za gledatelje.

Živković: Film jasne problematike i jasnog cilja. Jedina zamjera ide montažeru koji je ipak trebao svaki kadar malo skratiti. Tako bi i sam kraj bio veće iznenadenje nego što trenutno jest.

Šamanović: A good idea, the realization of which should have been a bit more precise. Black and white photography gave this stone architecture, which is the principal ingredient of each shot, additional visual weight and, more importantly, balance. There is a smaller problem of the constant trembling of the camera during filming. This type of film demands a maximum visual clarity, so the length of each shot turns these small oversights into significant mistakes.

Picula: Steps in the 'wonderful night in Split' are a great visual and sound leitmotif where the authors play it safe using eternal beauty of Dalmatian architecture. It's a shame they didn't experiment more and used some more effective surprises for the viewers towards the end of the film.

Živković: A film with clear topic and goal. The only reproach goes to the editor, who shouldn't shorten every frame and by doing so, the end would have been a bigger surprise than it is now.

Šamanović: Film simbolizma. Predlažem malo više pozornosti prilikom odabira kompozicije kadrova i kolorita. Boje su simbolički snažan element i treba ih promišljati, osobito u filmovima poput ovoga gdje svaki segment sadržaja podliježe analizi.

Picula: Oživljene fotografije dobar su izbor autora, ali filmski jezik ima smisla ako se njime nešto priča i uspostavlja vizualna komunikacija. Lijepo i distancirano.

Živković: Zanimljivo promišljanje, no ipak se dobija dojam da se brzalo s realizacijom.

Šamanović: A film of symbolism. My suggestion is to pay more attention when choosing the right frame composition and colour. Colours are an important element and should be carefully thought of. Especially in films like this one where everything can be subject to analysis.

Picula: Photographs 'brought to life' are good author's choice but film language makes sense if it is used to say something and it establishes visual communication. Beautiful and with aloofness.

Živković: Interesting thinking but you somehow get the impression that the authors went to fast with realization.

Živković: Animirani film izvrsne vizualizacije i crteža. Prva polovica filma dobro je režirana. Nakon što se sekvence počinju ponavljati, malo se izgubi ritam. Da je film za jednu repetitivnost kraći, bio bi bolji. Sve u svemu, film vrijedan gledanja uz sve pohvale autorima.

Živković: An animated film with great visualization and drawings. The first half is well directed but after the sequences start repeating you lose the rhythm. It would be better if it were shorter for one repetition sequence. All in all, a film worth watching and I praise the authors.

Naša televizija

Our TV

Živković: Kratki animirani film u kolaž tehnici na šaljiv način prikazuje ono što gledamo na našim televizijama, odnosno ono što nam se servira kao program. Velika prednost ovog filma je animacijska tehnika koja se u zadnje vrijeme sve manje koristi zbog prednosti tehnologije koja ju uspješno simulira, a mana je dosta loša zvučna obrada.

Živković: A short animated film made in a collage technique shows us our TV program and the things we have to watch every day but in a funny way. Its big advantage is the animation and the technique, which is lately rarely used because of the technological progress, that simulates it successfully and its down side is bad sound processing.

animirani - animation

Živković: Još jedan kolaž film iz tvornice animiranih filma iz Vranja. Tehnika je kolaž animacija, a tema je zaista velika: na poluozbiljan i polukomičan način priča se povijest čovječanstva kroz izum kotača. Iako ovom filmu fali ritma i u animaciji i u režiji, manjkavosti ima i u obradi zvuka koja je mogla i trebala biti puno bolja, bogatija i kvalitetnija. No tu manjkavosti ne staju. Autori filma datiraju izum kotača daleko u kameno doba da bi kasnije sami sebe demantirali shvativši da ni Egipćani još nisu bili načisto s kotačem. Povijest datira izum kotača oko 3500 god. pr. Kr., tako da i u scenariju ima nedostataka. No ovdje je riječ o animiranom filmu u kojem je sve moguće, zar ne?

Živković: Another collage film from Vranje animated film factory. The technique used is collage animation and the topic is wide: in a half-serious and half-humorous way the authors tell us the history of mankind through the history of wheel invention and usage. This film lacks in rhythm of animation and directing, as well as sound processing, which could have been richer and made in a better way. But the flaws don't stop here because the authors put the wheel invention far away to Stone Age and later almost deny it after realizing that the Egyptians used it too (the history dates it back to 3500 years BC). So the screenplay has its flaws too. But after all, this is an animated film in which everything is possible, right?

Živković: To je jedna od rijetkih komedija koje sam gledao na festivalima ovog tipa a vjerojatno i jedna od najboljih koje sam i video. Kod rada na filmu, kad se filmaš opredjeljuje za sam žanr uvijek je najteže napraviti dobru komediju, dok je relativno jednostavno snimiti dijete koje prelazi ulicu i pogazi ga auto, te se izazove tuga kod gledatelja, banalno gledajući. A kod komedije je jako teško izazvati željene reakcije kod mnoštva ljudi. Ovaj film krasí i relativno inventivna montaža koja podsećá na Francuski novi val 50-tih godina 20. st. I još samo što mogu reći je da jedva čekam da vidim ovaj film na velikom platnu a i filmsku ekipu na festivalu.

Živković: This is one of the rare comedies I have seen on this type of festivals, and probably one of the best I have seen ever. While working on the film, when a filmmaker has to choose a genre, it is always the hardest thing to make a good comedy, while on the other hand it is relatively easy to record a child that is crossing the road and after a while a car runs over the child; the situation that makes viewers sad, plainly looking. And when a comedy is a subject, it is very hard to provoke wanted reactions in most of the people. This film is embellished by relatively inventive editing that reminds on the French new wave that happened in the 1950s. And the only thing I can say in the end is that I can hardly wait to see this film on the big screen and the filmcrew on the festival.

Živković: U ova dva filma, koji zajedno čine jedan, najzanimljivija mi je najavna špica koja je ujedno i najkreativniji dio filma. Naime, riječ je o parodiji na sapunice u kojoj čak glumci i pričaju na španjolskom. Najveća mana filmova je gubitak ritma i dramaturgije, tj. parodiranje iste, dok je to isto postignuto u potpunosti u špici filmova. Ritam bi se postigao boljim montažnim rješenjima i lakšom rukom montažera, a dramaturgija definitivno krupnim kadrovima pojedinih aktera sa mogućim dodatkom zooma i dramatičnom muzikom u off-u.

Živković: In these two films, which together make a whole, the most interesting part is the opening, and it is the most creative part of the film. This is a soap-opera parody where actors even speak Spanish. The biggest flaw is the loss of rhythm and acting, i.e. loss of its infiltration, while on the other hand, the actors managed to infiltrate perfectly during the opening. Rhythm could have been accomplished by using better editing solutions and if the editor hadn't paid so much attention to details. Dramaturgy, on the other, could have been better if the authors had used more close-ups on some actors and had added a few zooms and dramatic music in the off.

The Movie

The Movie

1st FOUR RIVER FILM FESTIVAL

Živković: U ovom filmu vlada, blago rečeno, kaotična atmosfera. Najveća mana je što ni sami autori nisu bili načisto sa sobom što su s njime htjeli pa su u njega ubacili scene koje su im se činile dobre i pokušali ih nekako povezati u smislenu cjelinu. Za film treba ipak puno više pripreme, a napisati scenarij i knjigu snimanja nikad nije naodmet.

Živković: To say it nicely, a very chaotic atmosphere runs this movie. The biggest drawback of this film is the fact that even the authors themselves were not clear on what did they want from this film, so they threw in the scenes that they considered to be good and somehow tried to bond them in one meaningful unit. However, it takes a lot more preparation for the film and it is always good to write screenplay and scenario.

1st FOUR RIVER FILM FESTIVAL

Živković: Vrlo zanimljivo koncipirana režija filma koja paralelno pratи poker partiju dvije prijateljica i borbu za goli život dvojice likova koji su vjerojatno poznanici i braća od ove dvije poker igračice koji su se silom prilika našli u Zagrebu, no nije nažalost poznat razlog njihovog dvoboja.

Živković: A very interesting directing concept of the movie which at the same time follows a poker game of two female friends and a struggle for a bare life of two characters who are probably acquaintances and brothers of those two poker players. They end up in Zagreb but unfortunately we do not know the reason for their duel.

Živković: Film o dvojici prijatelja iz Bosne koje je rat silom prilika postavio na suprotnе strane. Priča prati njihov odnos prije, za vrijeme i poslije rata. Bez obzira što je ovaj film pun klišaja i patetičnih elemenata, predstavlja velik pomak, ali i velik zalogaj za ove mlade autore koji su se više ili manje uspješno nosili s ovako teškim zadatkom. Njihov trud izgleda još veći kada se shvati da su, uz jako puno entuzijazma, imali samo VHS kamеру.

Živković: A film about the story from Bosnia that follows two friends from Bosnia who were put on the opposite sides because of the war. The story follows their relationship during the war period and after. Regardless of being full of clichés and pathetical elements, this film is a great step forward but at the same time a big bite for the young filmmakers who carried out this hard assignment more or less successfully. Their effort seems even bigger when we consider the fact that they had only VHS camera out of technical equipment and a lot of enthusiasm.

Akterima filma se događaju sve žive moguće nevolje ovoga svijeta, jedino ih još vanzemaljci nisu oteli, i ne, ovdje nije riječ o komediji nego o ozbiljno koncipiranom filmu. Ali nije sve tako crno, film obiluje jednim melankoličnim ritmom što mu daje ujednačenost ali nekako je ipak predvidiva radnja.

Živković: Everything is black in this movie actually. All possible troubles hit the main protagonists of the movie, they were only not kidnapped by the aliens, and no, we are not talking about the comedy here but a movie with a very serious concept. Živković: Film jasne ideje koja je sa puno truda i kao takva provedena u djelo što se i vidi gledajući film. Posebno je zanimljiva kombinacija animacije iigranih dijelova. Čak bi se moglo reći da su animirani dijelovi i bolji. No to je vjerojatno moj subjektivni sud s obzirom da sam animator i ljubitelj animacije.

Živković: A film of a clear idea, made with a lot of effort and as such came into existence which can be seen simply by watching the film. What is especially interesting is a combination of animation and the acted parts. One can even say that the animated parts are somewhat better. But that is probably my subjective judgement considering the fact that I am an animator myself and have a love for animation.

Marjane (Chiara Mastroianni) je bistra djevojčica koja živi u Iranu za vrijeme šahovog apsolutizma i diktature. Njena obitelj ima napredne nazore i bori se za promjene i demokraciju. Nakon Islamske revolucije, monarchističku diktaturu zamjenjuje islamička vlast koja, nažalost, progoni i članove njezine obitelji. Marjane odrasta kao buntovno dijete i sluša zabranjenu zapadnjačku glazbu, a njena voljena baka (Danielle Darrieux) je uči poštenju. Kada počne okrutni Iransko-irački rat, roditelji šalju Marjane na studij u Beč. Ispočetka se kao strankinja ne može prilagoditi okolini, no ubrzo se počinje družiti s lokalnim alternativcima. Nakon povratka u Iran shvaća da tamo još uvijek vlada represivni režim. Prkosna kao i uvijek, neće se tako lako prilagoditi takvom načinu življenja.

Ovo crno-bijelo animirano filmsko djelce napravljeno je po autobiografskim motivima iz istoimenog stripa redateljice Marjane Satrapi, čija je majka inače praučnuka perzijskog šaha koji je bio na vlasti u Iranu u 19. stoljeću. O uspjehu filma svjedoče brojne nagrade: nagrade publike na međunarodnim festivalima u Vancouveru, Sao Paulou i Rotterdamu; Cesar za najbolji prvi film i adaptirani scenarij; nagrada Britanskog filmskog instituta; nagrada žirija Filmskog festivala u Cannesu te nominacije za Zlatnu palmu i Oscar. Nedavno je i izdan strip "Persepolis 2" koji će se, po svemu sudeći, također naći na filmskom platnu.

Marjane (Chiara Mastroianni) is a smart girl who lives in Iran during the rule of Shah's absolutism and dictatorship. Her family has progressive views and fights for change and democracy. After the Islamic Revolution, the monarchist dictatorship is replaced by Islamic government which, unfortunately, persecutes members of her family. Marjane grows up as a rebellious child who listens to forbidden occidental music and her beloved grandmother (Danielle Darrieux) teaches her how to be honest. After the start of the terrible Iran Iraq War, Marjane's parents send her to study in Vienna. In the beginning, she cannot fit in as a stranger, but soon she starts to hang out with local alternative kids. As she returns to Iran, Marjane realizes that the repressive regime is still in power, but defiant as she is, she refuses to accept and adjust to such way of living.

This black-and-white animated film is based on autobiographical motives from the comic made by the director Marjane Satrapi, whose mother is the granddaughter of the Persian Shah which ruled in Iran in the 19th century. The film got many awards: audience awards on international festivals in Vancouver, São Paulo and Rotterdam; Cesar for the best first film and adapted screenplay; British Film Institute Award; jury award from the Cannes Film Festival, Golden Palm and Oscar nominations. The comic 'Persepolis 2' was recently published and there are many speculations that it will also be made into the feature.

What To Do With Yourself During The Day

POPRTNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM

Mjesto radnje je lepoglavski zatvor - najstroža kaznionica u Hrvatskoj. U filmu pratimo skupinu osuđenika koja sudjeluje u zatvorskoj predstavi baziranoj na 'Snu ivanjske noći' W. Shakespearea. Predstava je nastala iz improvizacija o zatvorskom životu pa u njoj zatvorenici glume sami sebe. Tako nas nenametljivo redateljsko oko vodi kroz njihove probe u gradskom kazalištu i život u zatvoru.

Snimanje je u Lepoglavi obično zabranjeno, osim u posebnim slučajevima, no i tada s osuđenicima nije dozvoljeno boraviti duže od dva sata. Ova je filmska ekipa uspjela biti unutar zatvora i po šesnaest sati dnevno, pa čak i spavati u zatvoru. Razgovori s osuđenicima snimani su bez prisutnosti policajaca i time je postignuta maksimalna autentičnost. Točku na i daje izjava redateljice Juke koja kaže: Cijelo me vrijeme morio strah hoću li kroz razgovor s ovako teškim kažnjenicima uspjeti ispričati ono što želim, hoće li se ljudi moći identificirati s njima, hoće li će ih moći razumjeti...? U svakom slučaju, razloga za strah nema jer je Juka u svemu navedenom i više nego uspjela.

The scene is set in prison in Lepoglava the most rigorous jail in Croatia. In this film we follow a group of convicts who take part in the prison show based on "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by William Shakespeare. The show was made as an improvisation about the prison life so convicts portray themselves. Unobtrusive directors' eye leads us through their rehearsals in the town theater and life in prison.

Shooting in Lepoglava prison is usually forbidden, except in the special occasions, but even then staying with the convicts is limited to a two hour period. Anyway, the film crew managed to be sixteen hours per day in the prison, they even slept there. Conversations with the convicts were shot without the presence of the policemen and that is the reason for achieving the maximum authenticity. The last touch is given by director Juka statement: "The biggest fear I had during the shooting period was the question would I be able to tell exactly what I want through stories of these serious convicts, would other people be able to identify themselves with the convicts, will they be able to understand them...?" Anyhow, there were no reasons for fear since Juka was more than successful in all that was mentioned.

Preko granice

Across the Border

POPRTNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM

S jedne strane granice hrvatsko mještjašce Gunja, a s druge gradić Brčko koji u Republici Bosni i Hercegovini ima status distrikta. Povezani su mostom preko kojega, bez osobitih formalnosti, svakodnevno i u oba pravca kolaju ljudi, a za radnih dana i oveće grupe školaraca.

Zapravo, hrvatska Gunja (sa svojih pet do šest tisuća stanovnika) trajno je ekonomski, kulturno i obrazovno upućena na Brčko. Nekoć su se trudnice iz Gunje odlazile poradati u brčanskoj bolnici pa je njihovo djeci danas zajamčeno dvostruko državljanstvo. Njima, ali i tolikim drugim stanovnicima Gunje i okolnih sela, susjedni je gradić privlačan i iz egzistencijalnih razloga. Paradoksalno, nešto imućnija hrvatska djeca iz distrikta Brčko (i općenito iz tog dijela Bosne i Hercegovine) mogu ono što ne mogu djeca iz Gunje: automobilima ili autobusima odlaze preko mosta (u Gunju, Županju, Vinkovce, Osijek) da bi se školovali prema obrazovnim uzusima koji vrijede u Republici Hrvatskoj.

Pa ipak, olaknotra strana ove poprilično depresivne priče sadržana je u fleksibilnosti same granice; ljudi se bez ikakvih smetnji kreću u oba pravca pa mnogi drže da bi taj granični prijelaz zbog svoje "mekoće", tolerantnosti i hvale vrijedne propusnosti mogao postati primjerom prakticiranja dobrosusjedstva.

A small Croatian town Gunja is on one side and town Brčko which has a district status in Bosnia and Herzegovina is on the other. They are connected by the bridge, which, without any unnecessary formalities, hundreds of people cross daily, in both ways. On working days a lot of children going to school over the bridge as well.

As a matter of fact, Croatian Gunja, with its 5 or 6 thousand inhabitants, is economically, culturally and educationally permanently bound to Brčko. In the past, pregnant women from Gunja delivered their babies in Brčko and these babies even nowadays hold dual citizenships. To them, but also to other people from Gunja and the surrounding villages their neighboring town is interesting because of existential reasons too. Paradoxically, Croatian rich children from Brčko district and its surroundings (generally from that part of Bosnia and Herzegovina) are able to do what kids from Gunja cannot: they go over the bridge (to Gunja, Županja, Vinkovci or Osijek) by cars or busses and educate themselves following the Croatian educational procedures.

However, the mitigating side of this fairly depressing story is the flexibility of the border itself. People go both ways without any difficulties and many believe that this border crossing, because of its 'softness', tolerance and good penetration between the two states, should be the role model for practicing good neighborly relations.

Slučajni sin The Accidental Son

POP RATNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM

Dokumentarni film "Slučajni sin" autobiografska je priča Roberta Zubera. Naime, Robert je udomljeno dijete i toj činjenici sve donedavno nije pridavao prevelik značaj jer mu je život bio ispunjen pažnjom roditelja udomitelja. Ipak, nakon smrti majke udomiteljice, birokratski aparat pokušava ga uvjeriti da on roditelje zapravo nema. Na svoj 31. rođendan Robert odlučuje raščistiti svoje nejasne obiteljske i rodbinske odnose. Stupa u kontakt sa svojom biološkom majkom i pokušava dozнати što mu se sve dogadalo u najranijem djetinjstvu. Istovremeno, pokušava odgonetnuti tko mu je biološki otac... No ta je potraga prepuna iznenadenja.

Ovaj nadasve topao dokumentarac u 55 minuta objedinjuje iscrpnju potragu za roditeljima koja je trajala mjesec dana. Tijekom potrage Zuber uspijeva stupiti u kontakt sa svojom biološkom majkom te na nju više ne gleda jednostrano i upravo zbog toga ne želi da ju javnost osuđuje. Ipak, svojim pravim roditeljima Zuber smatra svoje udomitelje jer su ga primili k sebi i strpljivo odgajali. Jedan od ciljeva filma jest upozoriti na problem napuštene djece i naglasiti ulogu udomitelja koji za takvu djecu skrbe. S obzirom na dugogodišnju suradnju koju Kinoklub Karlovac ima s karlovačkim Dječjim domom „Vladimir Nazor“, izbor jednog ovakvog filma bio je sasvim logičan.

Documentary film 'Slučajni sin' is Rober Zuber's autobiographical story. Robert is an adopted child and he never thought that was important since all his life he has had an unconditional love and devotion from his foster parents. After the death of his foster mother, he has experienced many bureaucracy problems because the state claims he has no parents. On his 31st birthday Robert decides to clear things up. He contacts his biological mother and tries to find out what happened during his early childhood. At the same time he tries to figure out who his father is. But, that search is full of surprises...

This warm 55-minute-long documentary talks about Robert's search for his biological parents, which lasted for a month and in which Zuber managed to contact his mother and change his opinion about her. Because of that, he doesn't want the public to judge her and he still considers his foster parents to be his real parents because they took him and raised him with a lot of patience. One of the goals of this film is to warn the public about the problems of abandoned children and to emphasize the role of foster parents who take care of them. Considering the long lasting cooperation that connects Kinoklub Karlovac to Vladimir Nazor children's home, the choice of such film was quite logical.

Čudesna šuma Fantasy Forest

POPATNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM: FILMSKI 5-/FILM 5+

Radnja prati stanovnike šume koje terorizira zli Kaktus Car sa svojom vojskom. U šumi vlada strah, no kad u šumu zaluta slikar Pero Paleta, koji odspava ispod čarobnog hrasta i dobije specijalne moći, stanovnici šume ugrabe šansu da se kroz zabavnu avanturu obračunaju sa zlim Kaktus Carom i njegovim pobočnicima. A možda na kraju Kaktus Car i nije tako zao kakvim se čini?

U filmu se nalazi pregršt zanimljivih i legendarnih likova kao što su Pero Paleta, medvjed Mate, dabar Oštrozub, solmizacijski ježevi Do, Re i Mi, lisica Lili, Čičak, Čarobnjak Štapić, Vatroslav, žaba, čovjek gljiva i, naravno, Kaktus Car - likovi uz koje su generacije današnjih mlađih roditelja odrastali. A sada su na red došli i njihovi klinci... "Čudesna šuma" je prvi domaći dugometražni animirani film rađen u suradnji s američkom produkcijском kućom „Fantasy Forest“. Iako napravljen prije 22 godine, s bogatom pričom i još bogatijom animacijom, i danas je prava poslastica za najmlade filmove.

The plot follows forest inhabitants who are being oppressed by the evil emperor Kaktus and his army of weapons. Fear rules the forest, until one day a painter named Pero Paleta wanders into the forest and takes a nap under the magical oak-tree where he gains special powers. The inhabitants of the forest now have a chance to deal with the evil Kaktus emperor and his friend (Vatroslav) in a fun adventure. But maybe the Kaktus emperor isn't that evil as he seems...

The movie is followed by an abundance of interesting and legendary characters like: Pero Paleta, Mate the bear, a castor, musical hedgehogs Do, Re, Mi, fox Lili, Čičak, Magic wand, Vatroslav, a frog, the mushroom man and of course the emperor Kaktus those are the characters which the younger generation of today's parents grew up with and now it's their children's turn.

Fantasy forest is the first home-made feature animated film which was made in cooperation with American production company Fantasy Forest. Although made 22 years ago, it is still very popular in the circles of young film fans because of its rich animation.

Družba Pere Kvržice

Pero Kvržica's Gang

POPRTNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM: FILMSKI 5+/FILM 5+

Pero Kvržica, bistar i snalažljiv seoski dječak, sa nekoliko školskih kolega kreće u pustolovinu. Staru i napuštenu vodenici na kraju sela tajno preuređuju u ljetovalište. Vodenica nije u upotrebi zbog nesloge seljaka što koristi vlasniku parnog mlina. Kako bi zadržao mušterije, potplaćuje nekoliko seljaka da spriječe ponovno oživljavanje stare vodenice. Nakon mnogo radnih dana i uzbudljivih događaja, družba Pere Kvržica uz pomoć učitelja ospozobljava mlin i predaje ga seljacima.

"Družba Pere Kvržice" je, uz "Vlak u snijegu", jedan od najvećih filmskih klasika ondašnje države čiji šarm i danas, nakon 30 godina, ne zaostaje za suvremenim filmovima za djecu. Upravo zato njegovo uvrštavanje u program "Filmski 5+" i više je nego opravdano, u što će se moći uvjeriti i karlovački klinci.

Pero Kvržica, a bright and nimble swain boy, embarks into an adventure with a few of his school buddies. They turn an old and deserted watermill into their own summer resort for good. The watermill isn't in use because of discord amongst the peasants, which benefits the owner of the steam mill. In order to attract more customers, he bribes some of the peasants in order to prevent the revival of the old watermill. The gang of Pero Kvržica, with the help of their teacher, manages to fix the old watermill and turns it over to the peasants after many days of hard work and exciting events.

'Pero Kvržica's gang' along with 'Vlak u snijegu' or 'The train in the snow' is one of the greatest children literature's film classics of the former state, whose charm even nowadays, 30 years later, does not fall behind contemporary children films. Because of that his inclusion into the "Film 5+" program is more than justified, as the children of Karlovac will be able to convince themselves.

Ne daj se, Floki! Floki, don't give in!

POPATNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM: FILMSKI 5/FILM 5*

U novoizgrađenom gradskom naselju pas latalica poželi postati kućni pas. No put do ostvarenja te želje je dug jer stanari zgrade imaju različito mišljenje o kućnim ljubimcima. Tako će mali Jura koji želi udomiti psa kroz niz dogodovština otkriti različite karaktere odraslih i na kraju, uz pomoć djeda i bake, ipak dovesti psa u kuću.

Iako se kod nas filmovi na TV-u redovito prikazuju prilagođeni u tzv. mini-serije, ovdje je situacija obrnuta: omiljena dječja serija iz ranih osamdesetih je nakon mnogo godina, na radost mnogobrojnih malih i velikih obožavatelja, "prekrojena" uigrani film. Tako vesela pjesma zvoni u ušima klincima nekadašnjih klinaca koji su odrasli uz tu seriju:

"...Ne daj se, Floki, ostani psina
Onjuši te skele i kran.
Jer čovjeku treba pseća toplina,
A psu treba djetinji dlan..."

In a recently built town district a stray dog wishes to become someone's pet. But the road for making that wish to come true is long, because the buildings' inhabitants have a different opinion about pets. Thanks to all that, little boy named Jura, who wishes to find Floki a home, through many adventures is about to find out how different grownups can be. In the end, with the help of his grandparents, he will manage to bring the dog home.

Although films in Croatia are often transformed and broadcast on TV as so-called miniseries, the situation here is vice versa: a favorite children series from the early eighties, after so many years and fortunately for many young and old fans, has become a fiction film. So now the kids of former kids who have grown up listening to this cheerful song are singing it again:

'...Don't give in Floki, be a real dog,
Smell the scaffolding and the crane,
'Cause a man needs dog's warmth
And a dog needs children's palm...'

POPRTNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM: FILMSKI 5-/FILM 5+

Njemački ovčar zaostao iz rata pomalo je podivljao živeći sam u planini. Radi se o ličkom kraju gdje žive mnogi vukovi koji nerijetko seljanima napadaju ovce. Dječak Ranko uspije se sprijateljiti s divljim psom kojeg po natpisu s medaljice na ogrlici naziva Hund. Ostali seljani za Hunda misle da je vuk te organiziraju hajku na njega...

"Vuk samotnjak" i tri desetljeća nakon nastanka nosi titulu najpoznatijeg, najpopularnijeg i po mnogima najboljeg hrvatskog i jugoslavenskog dječjeg filma ikad snimljenog. Svojim debitantskim nastupom proslavio se mali Slavko Štimac, najveća dječja zvijezda jugoslavenskog filma uopće, koji je i kasnije u mladenačkoj dobi ostvario niz izuzetnih uloga (Specijalno vaspitanje, Sjećaš li se Dolly Bell). I svojim nastupom u posljednjem filmu, "Buick Rivieri", osvojio je kritičare. Na Pulskom festivalu "Vuk samotnjak" nagrađen je Velikom srebrnom arenom za drugi najbolji film, a dobio je i nagradu publike Jelen.

German shepherd, having survived the war, has gone wild while living alone in the mountains. The action takes place in Lika, a region where wolves often attack sheep. A boy named Ranko manages to tame the wild dog and calls him Hund, according to the inscription he found on dog's collar. The people from the village believe Hund is a wolf and organize a chase...

'Lone wolf', even 30 years after his premiere, still has the title of being the most famous, the most popular and the best Croatian and Yugoslavian children's film ever made. The actor Slavko Štimac made his first appearance in this film and later had many extraordinary roles in films like 'Do you remember Dolly Bell' and 'Special Education' and the critics praised him for his last film 'Buick Riviera'. 'Lone wolf' got the big silver arena for the second-best film on Pula Film Festival as well as the Jelen audience award.

Kraljica The Queen

POPATNI PROGRAM/OFF-PROGRAM

Kazališna skupina DNO djeluje u sklopu Udruge za umjetnički razvoj drama neočekivanih obrata. Predstava "The Stravitchna Knizhewna Vetcher" Nevena Mihajlovića Cetinjanina obilježila je početak djelovanja ove skupine 2001. godine. Kasnije su uslijedila ostvarenja predstava "Otrovna Patka" i "Kraljica". Za obje predstave tekst je napisala Renata Meštrović.

"Kraljica" je predstava koju skupina DNO najviše izvodi. Doživjela je brojne interpretacije mlađih izvođača koji su je svaki put nadogradivali i tako iz izdanja u izdanje činili boljom. Posebnost "Kraljice" je upravo njena mogućnost prilagodbe i prikazivanja svih društvenih problema, banalnosti i krajnosti na humorističan, ali i kritičan način. Priča počinje kada u jednom kraljevstvu umre kralj koji vladavinu ostavlja svojoj mlađoj kćeri Margot. Starija sestra Ursula, očekujući da će ona dobiti pravo na krunu, pokušava uz pomoć svog vjernog služe doktora uzeti vlast svojoj sestri. No tu u priču ulaze mnogobrojni naizgled sporedni likovi koji, kako predstava ide dalje, bivaju sve više upleteni u strašnu tajnu nasljedstva.

Theatre group DNO works within the Artistic Development Association Drama of Unexpected Twists. The theatre play 'The Stravitchna Knizhewna Vetcher' (The Horrible Literary Evening) made by Neven Mihajlović Cetinjanin marked the beginning of their work in 2001. The plays that followed were 'Otrovna Patka' (The Poisonous Duck) and 'Kraljica' (The Queen) from 2002. The text for both plays was written by Renata Meštrović.

'Kraljica' is DNO's most performed play. It has witnessed many interpretations by young actors who upgraded and improved it after every performance. The special thing about this play is the fact that it can be adjustable to show all sorts of social problems, banality and extremes in a rather humorous yet critical way. The story begins with the death of a king in a kingdom. His younger daughter Margot becomes the queen. But the older sister Ursula thought father would let her rule so, with the help of her faithful servant doctor, she tries to take over the throne. With the appearance of many (seemingly) supporting actors, the story gets more complicated as two sisters unveil the terrible mystery of their succession.

Karakter predstave/Tone of the show: Crnohumorna drama/Black-humored drama
